FRENCH REJECT U.S. OFFER; PLAN NEW DEBT DEAL

Caillaux May Lose Job in Tangle.

(Copyright, 1925, By the New York Times.)
PARIS, Oct. 21.—Following a lunch given today by Premier Painlevé to the members of the French debt commission to the United States, it was learned that the temporary arrangement plan brought back by Finance Minister Caillaux from Washington has failed of approval by the cabinet and therefore will not be submitted to the French parliament.
It is understood M. Caillaux submitted the proposal without any recommendation and that the majority of the members of the debt commission not only did not support it but took a rather unfavorable attitude. This resulted in an easy cabinet decision against it. Under this plan France was to pay $40,000,000 annually for five years as interest on its debt of $1,500,000,000 to the United States.
It was announced semi-officially that the French ambassador to Washington will, within a week, submit to the American debt funding commission, through the state department, the new proposals of the French government for dealing with the whole debt. There will be a cabinet meeting Saturday at which the proposals presumably will be discussed, and on Monday there will be held a council of ministers presided over by President Doumergue, which is expected to give definite approval to the new plan.

French Held First Offer Too High.
No information could be obtained in official quarters as to the probable nature of fresh French suggestions. In view of the criticism the finance minister has encountered because of the offer he made in Washington, which are regarded here as too much, it is difficult to see how M. Caillaux can make new proposals which will at the same time satisfy French opinion and bridge the gap between the last French offer and the last American proposal in Washington.

There is a report current that Paris, Washington, and London have conferred on the French debt to England and America and that this development has opened the way for new French proposals. There was no official confirmation of this rumor and, in fact, at the Quai d'Orsay, officials expressed ignorance of it.

Predict Fall of Caillaux.
M. Caillaux faces serious opposition because of new taxes he proposes to announce next week. The right criticism here because of the increased taxes on business, while the left blames him for not advocating a capital levy. This situation led to a remark in the French capital tonight to the effect that Caillaux may offer to America does not matter, because he will not be in office long enough to see them through. However, this should not be taken too seriously, for any offer made by the French minister would carry some weight with his successors because of the European principle of continuity of foreign policy.
Some of Caillaux's critics say he does not seem to make an offer that he seriously expects America to accept, but that he is simply continuing negotiations so that when parliament meets next week, instead of condemning the failure of his announced mission to settle the French foreign debt, he can say that negotiations are continuing.

Expect Long Negotiations.
Washington, D. C., Oct. 21.—(AP)—The French cabinet's apparent rejection of the American debt proposal is regarded here as the probable forerunner of a long series of exchanges between the two governments in an effort to find a new formula satisfactory to both.

It was said today at the treasury that France has definitely declined American five year arrangement and that any subsequent delay may result in a situation for the United States. The American policy has been based on the principle of the debtor to pay, and the French government's information is that French financial structure is making important steps toward a sounder basis.

Guaranties Private Loans.
The administration is scrutinizing all proposals for private loans to France by American banks developed today after a conference between President Coolidge and Charles E. Mitchell, president of National City bank of New York. Mitchell declines to disclose details of his talk with the President, but he left the White House he said until France had settled her debt with American bankers in the same loans.

WOMAN'S ASSETS $600; LIABILITIES ARE $7,000,000

Mrs. Grace Leathe of the Metropole hotel yesterday filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy, listing assets of $600 and liabilities of $7,000,000.
According to Mrs. Leathe's statement, $1,000,000 of the deficit is on her own account and the remainder has resulted as her inheritance from her third husband, Samuel H. Leathe of St. Louis, who died eighteen years ago. Litigation, it was claimed, has eaten up all of the money left by Leathe and $1,000,000 additional which Mrs. Leathe said she accumulated through her own business acumen.

Mrs. Leathe is not discouraged, according to her story, and expects to acquire another million if permitted by the United States District court to start anew with a clean slate.
The petitioner claims to be a grand daughter of James Logan of Virginia and a great-granddaughter of Col. Tighman, aid de camp to George Washington. Her second husband, she said, was a cousin of the late President Woodrow Wilson.

Bank Robbers' Plot to Blast Prison Thwarted

Little Rock, Ark., Oct. 21.—(AP)—A plot, said by prison officials to have been laid by members of the "Birchfield gang" of bank robbers and killers, to poison guards and inmates and to blow up the stockade was thwarted at the state prison farm at Tucker Sunday, the authorities disclosed today.
Packages containing eight sticks of dynamite and a can of poison, mailed to inmates, were intercepted. John Birchfield, bank robber, serving life for murder, was said by authorities to be the leader of the gang.

Bare Plot to Help Gunmen by Blackmail

Blackmailers have been collecting money for the defense of Albert A. Selmi and John Scalis, Genna gang members on trial for the murder of Policemen Harold Olson and Charles Walsh, said a blackmail letter received yesterday by Louis H. Smith, 825 Sunnyside avenue, and demanding $5,000.

The money demanded of Smith was to be delivered at 7:15 o'clock last night to a messenger who would be waiting near a cigar store at State and Van Buren streets, the letter said. Smith, with a decoy package under his arm, appeared according to directions, but Sgt. Ray Crane and his detective bureau squad watched. No messenger appeared, however.

Raising Money for Accused.
"We are raising money to save our partners, Anselmi and Scalis," the letter said. "We have listed you for $5,000. You will have to pay or you will die—you and your wife—we'll blow up your store like we did the cop's home."

Accompanying the letter were newspaper clippings telling of the bombing of the home of Sgt. William Sweeney, who killed Mike Genna in the same battle in which the two policemen died and who is a star witness for the state in the trial of the gangsters.

Enclosed with it also was a clipping telling of the murder of an unidentified man whose body was found in the Desplaines street police district. The clippings were intended to show, the letters said, that "we are not to be trifled with."

Claim Many Have Paid.
"Many business men have paid already," said the letter. "They know we don't joke. Unless you pay, we'll show you we don't joke. We have been watching you for two weeks and you are being watched now by people you would not suspect."

"If you do not pay you and your wife will die the saved off shotgun way. Also your store will be blown up. If your life and your wife's and your store are not worth $5,000, don't pay. We know what to do and we won't wait long."

The letter was signed "Jack Cuzak." The explanation was made that the writer had signed his name because the letter was to serve as a receipt for the $5,000, which, it was promised, would be repaid, with interest, within two months.

The letter was mailed at 9 o'clock Tuesday night in the loop, the postmark showed. It was directed to "Mr. Smith" and was printed with a pencil.

The directions for deliverer the money were as follows:
"At 7:15 p. m. sharp, the 21st, be

ATHENS GIVES SOFIA 48 HRS. TO AVOID CLASH

Rush Troops After Border Fight.

ATHENS, Oct. 21.—(AP)—The Greek government has sent an ultimatum, carrying a 48 hour time limit, to Bulgaria in connection with the fighting at a Greek frontier post near Demirhisar, demanding an indemnity of 2,000,000 French francs ($100,000), an official expression of regret, and the punishment of responsible Bulgarian officers.

Greece's ultimatum followed a note demanding full satisfaction for Monday's "unwarranted attack" on the post. Greece has demanded compensation for the families of the officers and soldiers killed.

Although the attack, which was followed by nearly twenty-four hours of fighting, seems to have been engineered by comitadjis, or irregular bands, it is reported here to have been carried out by regular Bulgarian troops.

The Sofia government, it is understood, has proposed the formation of a mixed commission of Greek-Bulgarian officers to investigate the incident on the spot.

Greece to Rush Troops.
LONDON, Oct. 21.—(AP)—The Exchange-Telegraph reports that after a ministerial conference last night in Athens the Greek government decided to order troops to advance by way of the Roper valley into Bulgarian territory and occupy Petrich, which is the headquarters of the Macedonian Bulgarian committee.

The object of the occupation of Petrich, the dispatch says, is to assure payment of indemnities demanded by Greece for the casualties suffered in the frontier fighting near Demirhisar and to cause dissolution of the headquarters of the comitadjis, which are alleged to have been plotting against the tranquility of the border.

Bulgar Version of Fight.
SOFIA, Bulgaria, Oct. 21.—(AP)—The Bulgarian version of the incident on the Greek frontier was given today by the Bulgarian telegraphic agency.

According to this account, a Greek soldier entered Bulgarian territory near Demirhisar on Monday and wounded a Bulgarian sentinel, who in return fired and killed his assailant.

A long fusillade across the border followed. The firing continued until last night, when a Bulgarian officer gained contact with the Greek commander at Demirhisar.

The Bulgarian government, the agency says, has proposed an immediate inquiry to fix responsibility.

BRITISH ACT TO SHAKE GRIP OF U. S. FILM BARONS

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
LONDON, Oct. 21.—Representatives of 1,000 British movie theaters met today to devise a means of freeing Great Britain from the grip of the American motion picture barons. The delegates represented approximately one-third of the British exhibitors.

It is charged that the Americans have squelched the entire British film industry, gaining a strangle hold on English theaters by block booking and flooding the country with foreign films which are strongly flavored with American propaganda. It is asserted that Americans are endeavoring to acquire the key film theaters in the large cities and that Wall street is prepared to spend $50,000,000 ($250,000,000) to enable the Americans to buy theaters in England.

The meeting unanimously resolved to combat block bookings and to resist American control. Movie men say that 90 per cent of the films shown in England come from America.

Epithets Fly as Lyle and Olson Scrap

Chief Justice Harry Olson and Judge John H. Lyle of the Municipal court exchanged uncompromising opinions yesterday because Judge John A. Bugee had reduced some of the high bonds Judge Lyle has set precedent in fixing. Judge Lyle brought with him a newspaper reporter and a court stenographer so that his complaint might be properly recorded. Judge Olson said he thought that was at least bad taste.

Judge Lyle had held Ben Cohn, Charles Wolf, and John Murrell on Tuesday after they had fought with Sgt. Thomas Meagher and other policemen who placed them under arrest on charges of picking pockets. He fixed bail at $40,000. That night Judge Bugee reduced the bail and accepted schedules by professional bondsmen. Yesterday morning the alleged pickpockets did not appear in court.

Act 1—Olson's Office.
Judge Lyle and the reporters entered Chief Justice Olson's office. Judge Olson didn't like Judge Lyle's attitude.

"Of course Judge Bugee shouldn't have interfered," the chief justice decided. "It's bad business for one judge to assume another's jurisdiction in this court. Otherwise I might have reduced those $2,000,000 bonds you fixed some time ago."

"You ought to be in the psychopathic hospital," Judge Lyle shouted. "You're crazy."

"You're just a fool," the chief justice replied. "The state Supreme court said you were wrong. Now you are making remarks to the effect the Supreme court rendered a small order decision. If they disbar you, you'll be driving a wagon."

Retorts Unmerciful.
"I have 3,000,000 people behind me," Judge Lyle asserted.

"Look out they don't all kick you at once," Judge Olson advised.

"I'm going to talk a few blocks from here tonight," Judge Lyle warned. "I'm going to skin you and rub salt in you."

"I had one fellow like you in here before," Judge Olson was reminded. "You're not the first fool that has sat on the bench."

Judge Lyle departed, followed by reporters and policemen.

CHANG'S TROOPS CUT OFF AS FOES TAKE RAIL TOWN

PEKING, Oct. 21.—(AP)—Chinese forces opposed to Marshal Chang Tso-Lin, the Manchurian militarist, have captured Manchow, an important railway junction about 200 miles north of the Yangtze river. Most of Chang's troops had already been withdrawn north of this point, but a few hundred were cut off.

Rally to Wu Pei-fu.
SHANGHAI, Oct. 21.—(AP)—The rallying of strong forces throughout the Yangtze valley to Gen. Wu Pei-fu, the former Chihli leader, who has declared his opposition to Peking and to Chang Tso-Lin, is indicated in reports received here. Gen. Wu left Yochow, in Hunan province, on the Yangtze river, for Hankow yesterday. Two warships accompanied him.

Travelers arriving from up the river report that all the ports on the lower Yangtze have declared in favor of Wu Pei-fu against Peking and Chang Tso-Lin.

The other is the importance of developing man.

"Altogether too many men have had to do routine jobs, unrelieved by variety or change of scene. We have got to work out a plan whereby men, even in the subordinate ranks of life, may obtain the sense of achievement out of performing routine tasks."

"We have got to devote ourselves to the problem of making men happy, not through making life soft and easy, but in so using the implements and facilities which science has placed at our disposal as to enable men, through their work and out of their work, to realize a larger life and take a greater zest in their work."

Speaks for Thoughtful Men.

In this, perhaps all unconsciously, Mr. Schwab has taken the view of U. S. Wells, James H. Robinson, Edward D. Martin and other thinkers of today.

The tall, thin, rather diffident new president of the university, Mr. Mason, speaking with the air of a mathematician, said that the actual work of the world needs the thinker and the contemplative man needs contact with reality. There has been too much of formalism in thinking. We must get underneath rules and solve problems.

"We shall not be able to silence the voices of those who complain bitterly of the present organization of society by legislation, by suppression of free speech, or by wholesale deportations," he said. "Cure for evils is being and must be obtained through enlightened industrial and commercial leadership. These leaders have in their hands the economic and social welfare of the race."

What They Did in World War.

Looking backward a moment, Mr. Wilson pointed out what the men on the platform had done in the world war. There was the Vice President, who overturned all precedents and became the purchasing agent for the allied armies, later heading the committee which formulated the Dawes plan for stabilizing Europe. There was Maj. Gen. Harbord, former chief of staff for Gen. Pershing. And it was revealed that President Mason had invited various devices for the detection of submarines threatening the transports, while, as every one knows, Mr. Schwab headed the Emergency Fleet corporation during the war.

The Vice President called on Maj. Gen. Harbord, who later became head of the services of supply for the A. E. F., and said Harbord's work in building supply lines behind Pershing's forces was the greatest industrial achievement in history, and prior to that Harbord had saved Paris with his marines at Belleau Woods.

Mr. Dawes said he had observed one difference between the American people and the United States senate, and that was that the people liked to hear him speak and the senate didn't.

"They only give me twelve minutes in four years," he said. "That was why I took advantage of it."

Brig. Gen. Dawes spoke of Mr. Schwab and Gen. Harbord as men of "majestic naturalness." They were themselves, he said, in Europe or anywhere else.

"Drink coffee with dinner and don't care who knows it," he said. "That is a contrast with a lot of postboard fronts who wear monocles and spats."

Predicts Vast Radio Progress.

Gen. Harbord gave a picture of radio future.

"That it will grow to be one of the towering industries of our civilization, safely may be ventured as prophecy," he said.

"Every part of the world is destined to be benefited by improved communications. Entire written matter, perhaps newspapers, will be flashed as complete pictures or documents. Efficient communication with commercial aircraft will be ready before the airplane is provided. Marine services to, from, and between ships will minimize even more the perils of the deep.

"Television is not far distant. Static will be chained a captive at the wheels of radio progress. International broadcasting will become commonplace. The opera of Europe will compete with our own.

"Entertainment and instruction will penetrate to the remotest places of the world.

"In time of national crisis or great emergency, Presidents will appeal to our millions in tones of voice that will be recognized, summoning public opinion to the support of the government."

Will Hear Asia Temple Bell.

"The temple bells of Asia will chime for us, and from the land of old religions will come the philosophies of ancient races. The thought currents of all humanity will mingle and will ebb and flow across the dividing oceans."

Gen. Harbord took up the commercial and technical aspects of radio and said an international radio conference would be held in Washington.

GREEN STAYS PAT FOR ESTATE TAX DESPITE IOWANS

Delegation Appears and O. K.'s Mellon Plan.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.] Washington, D. C., Oct. 21.—(Special.)—Claims the sentiment of Iowa taxpayers is strongly for the administration's advocacy of the repeal of the federal estate tax and not in sympathy with the opposition to such repeal by Representative Green (Rep., Ia.), chairman of the house ways and means committee, which is framing the new tax bill, featured today's hearing before the committee.

Fifty representatives of Iowa tax clubs appeared before the committee in support of Secretary of the Treasury Mellon's plan for repeal of estate taxes and reduction of high surtaxes.

Green Stands Pat.

Representative Green, who presided, paid tribute to the standing of the members of the delegation in home state, but refused to concede that they represented its sentiment on this particular proposition.

The appearance of the Iowa delegation followed testimony by a similar group representing Texas tax clubs at yesterday's hearing. The Texans appeared to direct their fire at Representative Garner (Dem., Tex.), ranking minority member of the committee, who, like Chairman Green, favors the retention of the federal estate tax.

Spokesmen for the Iowa delegation included Lieut. Gov. Cien F. Kimball, Council Bluffs; Henry L. Adams, Des Moines, former state senator; W. S. Baird, Council Bluffs, state senator; Frank Shane, Ottumwa, state senator; and M. E. Pitts, Crescent, former speaker of the Iowa house of representatives.

Draw Democratic Fire.

Charges between members of the Iowa delegation and Democratic members of the ways and means committee marked the hearing. Assertions by the Iowans that President Coolidge and his administration should be credited with such economy in governmental expenditures as have been effected, drew the ire of the Democrats.

Declarations by the westerners that Republicans and Democrats alike in their section of the country were for the tax policies of Secretary Mellon also did not set well with the minority members of the committee.

"The administration is in a better position to know what is best to be done regarding changes in tax schedules than any other body of men," said Mr. Adams. "We favor the Mellon plan. We favor repeal of the estate tax or a material reduction in its rates. The high surtaxes have driven millions of dollars into hiding, and should be reduced."

Relief for Foreign Trade.

O. K. Davis, appearing for the National Foreign Trade council, urged that tax relief be given to Americans engaged in foreign trade and residing abroad.

W. S. Bennet, representing the Chicago stock exchange, proposed an amendment to the law to permit part-

HOW MELLON PLAN WOULD REDUCE TAXES ALL ALONG THE LINE

Washington, D. C., Oct. 21.—(Special.)—Amounts which would be saved by taxpayers under the Mellon plan are shown in a table which has been prepared extending as high as incomes of $10,000, above which the new maximum surtax of 20 per cent would apply.

The table, which is based on reductions of normal rates from 2, 4, and 6 per cent to 1 per cent up to $3,000, 3 per cent for the next $3,000, and 5 per cent above that, and on reductions of surtaxes from present rates from 1 to 40 per cent to a scale extending to a maximum of 20 per cent, follows:

DRAG DOWN CITY AND STATE TAX, MADDEN URGES

Increase Nullifies Cuts in Federal Levy.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 21.—(Special.)—Congressman Martin B. Madden of Chicago, chairman of the house appropriations committee, told the St. Louis chamber of commerce today that the elimination of unjust tax burdens was a task for the people by demanding that their state and municipal governments join the federal tax-reduction movement.

The federal government, he said, is cutting costs at every opportunity, but the taxpayers' resulting benefit is negligible, since municipal, state and county taxes are increasing.

People to Blame.

"The difficulty lies mainly with the people themselves," he said. "They continue to insist upon government activity which it ought not to assume. They cannot do this unless they are willing to bear the cost. The remedy is forceful public sentiment."

Governmental expenditures during the world war, he said, totaled more than twice as much as they had from the day the declaration of independence was signed until the day war was declared with Germany.

What the War Did.

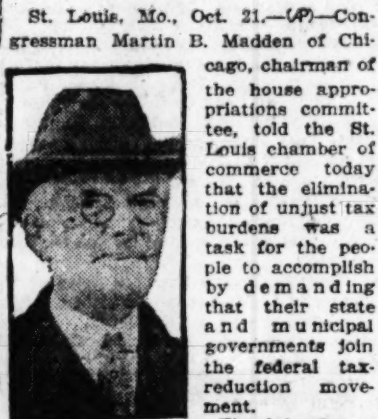

Whereas the cost of federal government prior to the war was $1,000,000,000 annually, it rose to $19,000,000,000 in 1919, but is now about $3,500,000,000 annually.

"Every one pays these taxes. The man who thinks he escapes is the man who really pays. He pays it in higher living costs. The burden is passed on to him."

Misquoted, Says Kinley, About $22,000,000 Request

Urbana, Ill., Oct. 21.—(Special.)—Denying that President Kinley, said he would ask the state to appropriate $22,000,000 for improvements, the University of Illinois issued a statement today quoting the president as follows:

If the university undertook to do all the work and build all the buildings that the people of the state demanded for one occasion of another, it would take $22,000,000 to meet the demand."

U. S. JUDGE TELLS PRIESTS TO TEACH LAW OBSERVANCE

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 21.—(Special.)—Five run-runners, who had operated by motor cars between St. Louis and Indianapolis, Ind., were sentenced to penitentiary terms today upon their plea of guilty before Federal Judge Davis.

To priests who had appeared to urge clemency for two of their parishioners, Judge Davis said: "We have a good deal of trouble with your people. You ought to go home and tell them they should obey the laws of this country or leave it."

Anthony Sanone and William Frank, of St. Louis, for whom the priests pleaded, were sentenced to one year and a day in Leavenworth and fined $2,000 each. Donald Underwood, Mike Best and Jack Hendricks all of Indianapolis each was sentenced to two years and fined $2,000.

BRITISH PLAN TO BEGIN QUITTING COLOGNE NOV. 1

Wiesbaden Will Be Taken Over from French.

BY JOHN STEELE.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, Oct. 21.—(Special.)—The British foreign secretary announced today that the British government had decided to begin the evacuation of Cologne on Nov. 15 and to be completed in about six weeks.

The slow evacuation is necessary because of the desire not to disorganize the civilian railway traffic and other transportation and because there are many business affairs to be settled after years of occupation, such as the turning over of barracks and the termination of contracts. The British have 10,000 troops at Cologne alone. A part of these will be brought home and the rest will be sent to Wiesbaden, where the British will take over from the French.

May Invite Von Hindenburg.

Arrangements are already being made for making the greatest possible impression of the signing of the treaty in London on Oct. 1. St. James palace will be turned over to the delegates and a series of dinners, balls, and other entertainments have been arranged.

It is hoped that President E. Emmerich of France will be able to come as well as Aristide Briand, the French foreign minister; Hans Luther, German chancellor; and Gustav Stresemann, the German foreign minister. It has been suggested that President Hindenburg of Germany might also be invited. Premier Mussolini may also be invited.

LOW INFANT MORTALITY IN AUSTRALIA

The infant death rate in the United States is higher than in Australia, New Zealand, Norway, Sweden, and the Irish Free state, and no state in the United States where deaths are registered has as low a rate as New Zealand or Australia.

Special Tribune Press Service.
LONDON, Oct. 21.—Austen Chamberlain, the British foreign secretary, announced to the cabinet today on his return from the Locarno conference, and a most enthusiastic endorsement.

It is not believed the slightest difficulty will be encountered by parliament in the approval of the security pact, and action may even be unanimous. For the British Minister Lloyd George has warmly blessed the Locarno treaty. Chamberlain Macdonald, as leader of the opposition, may make some friendly criticism, but it is expected that he will lead his party into a "lobby" when the time for a vote comes.

The Tribune understands the allies are satisfied that the two big questions which have been delaying evacuation of Cologne have been recently settled. These are the demarcation of the Krupp works and the Schuylkill. Only a few details remain to be accomplished before the formal recognition that Germany has complied with the demands of the allies.

May Begin Evacuation Nov. 15.
The military chiefs are already planning the evacuation, which is expected to begin about Nov. 15 and to be completed in about six weeks.

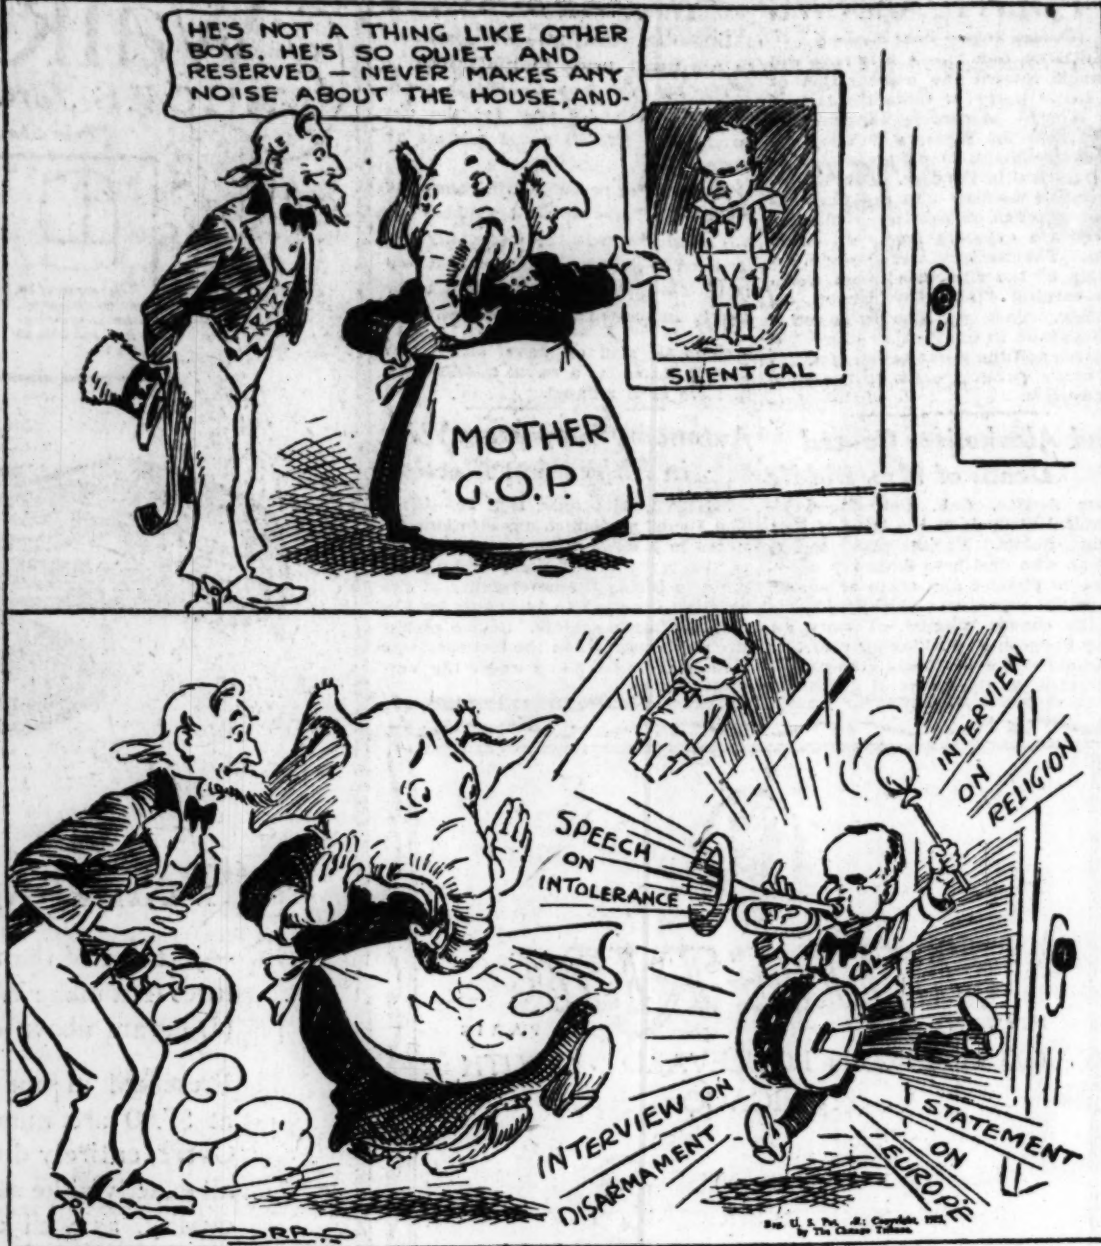

The slow evacuation is necessary because of the desire not to disorganize the railway traffic and other transport and because there are many business affairs to be settled after five years of occupation, such as the turning over of barracks and the termination of contracts. The British have troops at Cologne alone. A part of the army will be brought home and the rest will be sent to Wiesbaden, which the British will take over from the French.

May Invite Von Hindenburg.
Arrangements also are being discussed for making the greatest possible honor of the signing of the treaty in London on Dec. 1. St. James palace will be turned over to the delegates, and a series of dinners, balls, and other entertainments has been arranged.

It is hoped that President Doumergue of France will be able to come as well as Aristide Briand, the French foreign minister; Hans Luther, the German chancellor, and Gustav Stresemann, the German foreign minister. It has been suggested that President von Hindenburg of Germany might also be invited. Premier Mussolini may be invited.

MURDERS SHIP'S CAPTAIN IN BED; SHOOT 2 OTHERS

LONDON, Oct. 21.—(AP)—Capt. A. H. Clews, commander of the liner Melita of the Canadian Pacific Steamships, Ltd., was shot and killed aboard his ship at Antwerp last night, a message to the company today reported.

Thomas Towers, first officer of the Melita, is accused of having killed Capt. Clews while the latter was asleep in his cabin. When other officers tried to overpower him, Towers shot two of them, David Kennedy Gilmore of Glasgow, assistant chief engineer, and John Holliday of Bootle, England, junior second engineer.

The cause of the shooting is not known. Towers was arrested. Capt. Clews' home was at Birkenhead, England. The slain man was a nephew of the late Henry Clews, Wall street financier, who was born in England, and who died in 1923.

ACTION AGAINST BEET SUGAR MEN IS DISMISSED

Washington, D. C., Oct. 21.—(AP)—The federal trade commission's proceedings against beet sugar manufacturers, which were a factor last spring in the successful fight to prevent confirmation of Charles B. Warren as attorney general, today were dismissed by a 3 to 2 vote of the commission.

The commission's complaint, issued thirteen days after Mr. Warren's name was sent to the senate by President Coolidge, was directed against the Larowe Milling company of Detroit and eighteen concerns engaged in the manufacture of beet sugar. Among them was the Michigan Sugar company, of which Mr. Warren had been the head. He resigned from the presidency of the company while his name was under consideration for the cabinet post.

ELOPING TEACHER IS SUSPENDED BY SUPT. McANDREW

Samuel F. Hartung, instructor of English at the McKinley High school, who on Monday eloped to Valparaiso, Ind., with his former pupil, 18 year old Ruth Smith, was suspended yesterday by Superintendent of Schools William McAndrew.

The order followed an investigation made by William J. Bogan, assistant superintendent; William Tower, district superintendent in charge of senior high schools, and Joseph Connelly, district superintendent in charge of junior high schools.

Details as to how the investigating committee arrived at the findings reported to Mr. McAndrew were not disclosed. But it was said that circumstances leading to a complaint made a year and half ago against Hartung by the girl's mother, Mrs. Frances Smith, 2444 Congress street, were investigated by the committee.

Teacher and Bride in Hiding.
Mr. Bogan said the committee had made an effort to get Hartung's side of the case, but had been unable to find either him or his child bride. The couple, since returning to Chicago on Tuesday, have kept discreetly in the background, presumably for fear of service of a warrant procured by the girl's mother and her divorced husband, Harry A. Smith, 524 South So. avenue, Oak Park.

Supt. McAndrew may legally, if he chooses, discharge Hartung from his position, it is pointed out, as the latter has not been in service as long as three years and therefore is not entitled to a hearing.

Hartung is accused of frequently taking Ruth to his rooms at 3425 Warren avenue following his recent divorce from Mrs. Wilma Hartung. The latter is reported as fully approving her former husband's course as to his latest bride, and is even said to have obtained the divorce so the two might marry.

Calls Hartung Indiscreet.
"Undoubtedly Hartung was indiscreet," Mr. Bogan said. "But whether his conduct deserves a stronger term we do not now know. Our only course was to recommend suspension. Our schoolgirls must be protected."

The girl's father yesterday attempted to withdraw the formal charges that the teacher had contributed to the delinquency of his daughter. He indicated that their marriage made the whole controversy a "closed incident."

Mrs. Smith, the girl's mother, most forceful in her condemnation of Hartung, also is reported to have related somewhat.

THE BALDWIN-Welte-Mignon® Reproducing Piano is the combination of two of the world's most marvelous instruments—The Baldwin Piano and Welte-Mignon® Reproducing Action.

The Baldwin Piano is the beloved personal instrument of the most celebrated musicians; while Welte-Mignon® Action means absolute fidelity in the reproduction of their playing.

De Pachmann says of his Baldwin: "It speaks to me, appeals to me and compels me to reply to it with more tone revelation."

And for Welte-Mignon®: the head of one of the leading conservatories of music, upon hearing for the first time the reproduction of Rubinstein's "Le Bal Waltz," suddenly leaped to his feet exclaiming, "That's my brother playing! I haven't heard him for years—it's he all over!"

The professor was right. His brother had recorded this selection for Welte-Mignon® in Germany some years before.

With a Baldwin-Welte-Mignon® Reproducing Piano in your home you enjoy both the actual playing of the world's most distinguished artists and all the matchless glory of tone that a Baldwin makes possible.

APPEAL BOARD DENIES PLEA OF BREWERY FIRM

Value of Saloon Licenses in 1918 Held Low.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 21.—Special.—Deductions for alleged obsolescence of saloon licenses, value of which was destroyed by prohibition, are refused in a decision of the board of tax appeals today in the case of the Calumet company of Chicago. Besides operating a brewery the company formerly controlled 60 saloon licenses in that city.

The board approved deficiencies in income and profits taxes for the years 1918 and 1919 in the amounts of $556.63 and $4,500.87 as assessed by the commissioner of internal revenue.

In its decision the board held that where prohibition legislation is claimed to have rendered obsolescent saloon licenses acquired both prior and subsequent to March 1, 1913, the taxpayer must prove not only the value of such licenses on March 1, 1913, in the one case, and on the date of acquisition in the other, but also that such licenses continued in effect and had value when the prohibition law was enacted.

Deduction for obsolescence for saloon licenses purchased after March 1, 1913, it was held, will not be allowed in the absence of evidence from which the board may determine whether the purchases constituted capital expenditures or ordinary expenses.

Of the 60 licenses purchased prior to 1913, 53 were valued at $114,000, according to the company. Two licenses were purchased after 1913 for $2,672.

Attorney Clarence S. Darrow was called on yesterday by Judge William N. Gemmill in the Criminal court to defend Fred Curry, 14, colored, charged with manslaughter. The boy, charged with stabbing Anthony Lascola, 15, a schoolmate, said he was without counsel. The judge appointed Darrow.

Attorney Draws Term in Jail; Guilty of Contempt

Attorney Wendell Peis, 335 Milwaukee avenue, was found guilty of contempt of court and sentenced to serve ten days in the county jail by Municipal Judge Charles F. McKinley yesterday. Peis was charged with attempting to bribe Judge McKinley's personal bailiff, William F. De Longe, with $25 in order to have a judgment against a client set aside. The bailiff notified the judge. Peis was prosecuted by John L. Fogie, attorney for the grievance committee of the Chicago Bar association.

It Took Real Courage

To Announce Such a Drastic Move—but We Believed the Public Wanted It—and They Have Proved It in the Last Week

The New LYTTON Budget Buying Plan

Is Simply an Enlarged Charge Service Which Now Permits the Purchase of Society Brand and Other Fine Clothing on Deferred Payments

For 39 years The Hub has been striving for greater prestige—through the quality of its merchandise and the character of its clientele. We could ill afford to even consider any policy that would in any way reflect on our good name.

Because this new plan is so revolutionary we are glad to discuss it openly "pro and con." We have been asked by a few patrons and friends if this was an indication that we were lowering our standards. NOT AT ALL! Can there be any discredit when a great public institution broadens its service; when after an exhaustive study of the buying habits of the nation, it recognizes that an addition must be made to the old established selling methods?

You have bought Automobiles, Radios, Real Estate, Household Necessities and even Investment Securities on Deferred Payment with the approval of the country's leading banks. The Hub's progressiveness now permits you to buy Fine Clothing on the same convenient basis.

The tremendous success of the first week was a revelation. We are more than delighted that we had the courage to make this drastic move. It has proven itself in one short week.

We repeat again there is no added cost for this service—no interest or carrying charge. Cash, Regular Charge and Budget Plan prices are identical—and as always the lowest in the city—consistent with our recognized standards of quality.

*The Hub is the first large fine clothing store in America to offer this service

CARLSTROM WILL FIGHT C. & N. W. INJUNCTION PLEA

Rate Dispute Goes Into Court Tomorrow.

Attorney General Oscar Carlstrom will probably appear in person in Federal Judge Adam C. Cliffe's court tomorrow when attorneys for the Chicago & North Western railway apply for a temporary injunction to restrain the Illinois commerce commission from interfering with the collection of increased suburban passenger fares, which became effective Tuesday morning.

Col. Frank L. Smith, chairman of the state commerce commission, conferred with the attorney general at Springfield yesterday and it was understood they agreed on a definite plan of action.

In the first place, it was said, there will not be any separate proceedings started on the part of the state in either the federal or state courts. Instead the attorney general will walk into court and oppose the railroad's plea for a temporary restraining order. Will Tell History of Case.

Mr. Carlstrom's purpose will be to bring before the federal court the history of the rate matter from its inception five years ago down through the joint petition of all suburban lines. It will be explained, it was said, that hearings on these petitions were still pending when the interstate commission granted the North Western permission to raise its suburban rates approximately 20 per cent.

The aim will be to effect a situation where the old rates will be held in force until the state commission reaches a decision. That announcement must be before Dec. 15 at the latest.

The argument of the state, it was said, will probably center around a decision of Chief Justice Taft of the United States Supreme court defining the separate jurisdictions of the federal and state commerce commissions in connection with lines falling under both.

Chief Taft's Decision.

In brief this ruling was that the interstate commerce commission is empowered to fix the interstate rates involved and that the state body thereupon must harmonize the intrastate rates with those fixed for the longer hauls.

Attorney General Carlstrom will be in Chicago this morning and is expected to confer with George Dierssen, assistant at the attorney general's local office. Before leaving the state capitol the attorney general said if his other duties permitted he would familiarize himself thoroughly with the state's side of the dispute between the two commissions and the North Western. He said he would then present it tomorrow with the assistance of Dierssen and representatives of the state commerce commission.

Two Girls Killed When Train Crashes Into Truck

Moline, Ill., Oct. 21.—(AP)—Two young women were killed and a man and a woman were seriously injured this morning when the truck in which they were riding was struck by a Rock Island passenger train. The dead are Hortense De Bel, 18, and Gabriella Monstrey, 16, both of East Moline.

TRANSIT PERMIT QUESTION TO GET HEARING NOV. 2

Committeemen Back After Survey in Europe.

Chicago, which has grown accustomed through the years to hearing the traction subject discussed from all angles, will hear considerably more in the next few weeks about various methods of operation, including terminable permits, or indefinite franchises.

On Nov. 2 the special joint committee of the Illinois senate and house named to study the terminable permit question will begin sessions in Chicago. Several members of this committee have just returned from six weeks in Europe, where they made a special study of transportation problems in the big cities on the continent and the British Isles.

Party Returns to Chicago.

In the party which returned to Chicago yesterday were Lieut. Gov. Stearns, Senators Dallery (Rep., Peoria), Carlson (Rep., Rock Island), Wright (Rep., De Kalb), and Hughes (Dem., Chicago), all members of the committee, and Samuel Scholes of Springfield, no relation of Speaker Scholes, who is a member. Because they were on no official junket at the expense of the taxpayers, but instead spent part of their own vacations studying some of the questions that are to come before them later, the committee members saved most of their findings to incorporate in a statement to the full committee when it meets next month.

Senator Richard J. Barr (Rep., Will.), chairman of the joint committee, remained in New York for a few days' visit with his daughter. The other members scattered to their homes as soon as they reached Chicago.

Zoning System Described.

Universally in the capitals of Europe the traction lines make a sincere effort to give good service, Senator Hughes said. Cars are smaller and fares higher. A zoning system, whereby a passenger pays in proportion to the length of the ride, prevails in most of the big European cities, he said. But it is the efforts to give good service that impressed the legislators most, Senator Hughes declared. In most of the places visited there is a measure of home rule or local control by governmental bodies over the transportation systems, he said. The Illinoisans visited London, Glasgow, Dublin, Stockholm, Paris, Berlin, Geneva, Naples, Rome, and even paid a visit to Venice, where they rode in gondolas.

Last Year's Sensational Success

A year ago we had a selling that became the talk of the Loop. The values were so unusual, so sensational, that our extensive Basement Section was crowded during that notable event.

In those three hectic days we surpassed every record of our Section. We sold thousands of coats, made an army of new friends, and fixed more firmly than ever our reputation for leadership in value-giving.

We're Out to Do Even Better

This year we laid our plans early. We fixed a definite goal. Our buyers visited every important market. They bought woolens in the piece at great concessions. They arranged for their tailoring on special terms. They added to them large purchases of coats from nationally-known makers retiring from business.

The result is a group of values such as we delight to offer our customers—values we believe impossible of duplication in full lines anywhere else.

WHEALAN WILL ENTER RACE FOR TREASURY POST

Throws Bomb Into Brennan County Politics.

BY FRANK BUTZOW.

County Commissioner Emmett Whealan tossed a high powered bomb into the inner council of the Brennan camp yesterday by announcing his intention of running for county treasurer.

O'Brien, chairman of the party managing committee and premier of the Dever city administration, as a candidate two weeks ago.

Calls O'Brien Entry Bluff.

Whealan, who also is committeeman for the Fifteenth ward, says he is convinced that the O'Brien candidacy was a mere bit of strategy to throw cold water on the ambitions of other treasury aspirants to hold them in check until the houses decide on a final entry.

This accusation has been common for two weeks, despite denials of such a conspiracy at the Hotel Sherman headquarters.

Either O'Brien and his counselors are bluffing or they are in for a rough and tumble scrap when the county committee meets for slate making purposes next month.

Whealan said. County Clerk Robert M. Swetzer, a candidate for renomination, and Chairman O'Brien are both from the Twenty-ninth ward. Whealan and other leaders think it is putting it on a bit thick to slate these two big offices for the same ward.

Has Won Many Fights.

"I am used to fighting," Whealan said. "I've had some tough scraps and have come out on top. One little inside group can't sit down and do everything. The committee can still function. I think they are bluffing, but it is a cinch these two important offices cannot go to the same ward."

Commissioner Whealan, who is chairman of the county board's finance committee, says he thinks his experience in county finance qualifies him for the treasury post as much as any candidate, potential or otherwise, that has been mentioned. Ald. Tom Byrne (18th) is backing his ward leader to the limit.

Launches Smith Fight.

Republican National Committeeman Allen F. Moore of Monticello arrived in Chicago yesterday to take command of the Smith senatorial headquarters at the Congress hotel. It was Moore's formal statement some weeks ago that put Republican State Chairman Frank L. Smith in the running against Senator William B. McKinley.

Mr. Moore has just returned from Washington, where, he says, he was firmly convinced that the White House intends to take no sides in the Illinois Republican senatorial battle. The McKinley camp has been capitalizing reports that President Coolidge wants McKinley returned to Washington and that the President has let Senator Deneen understand matters that way.

Mr. Deene says he has had no understanding with anybody, while general political gossip has it that there have been so many understandings all around that the whole affair is hard to understand.

McKinley Sees Ratification. Commenting on the attack, Senator Borah (Rep., Idaho) made on the world court at the Auditorium Tuesday night, Senator McKinley said yesterday that he believes the senate will ratify the recommendations of President Coolidge on the question whatever they might be finally.

Senator George Wharton Pepper (Rep., Pa.), a middle ground reservationist on the court proposition, will address members and guests of the Women's Roosevelt Republican club on his views tomorrow at a tea in the Florentine room of the Congress.

Senator Borah's meeting was held under the auspices of the same club.

SHAPE OF EGGS WON'T TELL SEX. It is impossible to predict the sex of the chick before hatching by the shape or size of the egg.

BATHS LIKE ANCIENT ROMANS. The city of Rome is planning the erection of a municipal bath house, built on the lines of the ancient Roman baths.

UNEMPLOYMENT IN BRITAIN LAID TO JAP GROWTH

"Japan's industrial growth, especially along textile and machinery lines, is largely responsible for the existing nonemployment situation in Great Britain," yesterday declared A. E. Goodwin, London, England, director of the Federation of Master Printers of the United Kingdom and Ireland, who is attending the United Typothetae convention at the Edgewater Beach hotel.

"The rise of industry among oriental people is cutting into British manufacture," said Mr. Goodwin. "Japan, and India, too, are becoming strong competitors of my country in eastern markets."

"The day of the tramp printer has passed," said C. B. Lockwood, business manager of the Typothetae Bulletin. "This romantic figure of early journalism has given way to the highly specialized printer of today, who has been forced by competition to settle down."

BRITISH SEIZE TWO MORE RED CHIEFS IN DRIVE

LONDON, Oct. 21. — (AP) — Scotland Yard today announced the arrest of Arthur McManus, chairman of the communist party in Great Britain since its formation, and John Thomas Murphy, a frequent contributor to the communist press, on charges of conspiring to incite sedition and mutiny.

The arrests were in continuance of the campaign against the communists begun last week with the arrest of six prominent members of the party, including Albert Inkpin, secretary; John Campbell, editor of the Workers' Weekly, and Harry Pollitt, secretary of the national minority movement.

These six were arraigned Thursday on charges similar to those laid against McManus and Murphy and were remanded until Friday of this week on bail of £100 ($500) each.

FIND BOY LOST IN NORTH MICHIGAN BLIZZARD DEAD

Negaunee, Mich., Oct. 21.—(AP)—Lost since Sunday, when caught in a severe snowstorm, Walno Maki, 14, of Dorr, was found dead late yesterday by searchers. Tino Johnson, 17, wandered into a farmhouse near Clarkburg yesterday morning, his feet frozen, face swollen, and mentally deranged. The boys were returning from a camp when the storm caught them.

Italians Abandon Ship After Crew Is Rescued

New York, Oct. 21.—(AP)—The Italian freighter, Ignazio Florio, which sent out S. O. S. signals on Monday night, was abandoned in a sinking condition this afternoon after the crew had been rescued by the steamship President Harding, the United States line was informed by radio.

The heavy fall of sleet. At Ishpeming and Negaunee there was two feet of snow. Hundreds of Sunday tourists were caught on the highways. Late Monday the storm was so bad that the high powered wrecking machines became snowed in and it was necessary to use tractors.

The Johnson and Maki youths had taken a walk into the woods with three younger boys. The blizzard broke with such fury that all became lost in a few minutes. The three younger lads succeeded in making their way home late in the afternoon and searchers immediately set out for the others.

BRITISH LORD WHO WED MRS. AVA ASTOR DIES

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

LONDON, Oct. 21.—Lord Ribblesdale, who has been described as the last great nobleman of the Victorian era, died tonight at London. He was nicknamed by the late King Edward as "The Ancestor" because he looked in his old fashioned attire and with his air of old world dignity as if he had just stepped out of a family portrait gallery. In 1919 he married Mrs. John Jacob Astor, formerly Ava Willing of Philadelphia, whose divorced first husband was drowned on the Titanic. His title ends with him, as both his sons were killed in battle, one in Somaliland and the other in the great war.

Girl Speeder Jailed; Freed When Court Hears Story

St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 21.—(AP)—Miss Vera Johnson, 19 year old student, sentenced Monday to five days in the workhouse for speeding, was released Tuesday. The court learned she was answering a sick call when she was arrested for traveling 53 miles an hour. She was the first woman to be sent to the workhouse here for speeding.

Oklahoma Woman Admits Part in Poison Plot

Tulsa, Okla., Oct. 21.—(AP)—Mrs. Queen Ryan, 55, pleaded guilty here today to a charge of attempting to poison Mrs. Louise Beeman, 62, so that she might marry Mrs. Beeman's husband, Austin, 62. Beeman had already pleaded guilty to participation in the plot and is serving a ten year sentence.

SMITH TO FIGHT FOR CONFESSION AGAINST DURAND

Col. A. V. Smith, state's attorney of Lake county, prosecuting Jack Durand and James Miller before Judge Clair C. Edwards of Waukegan on charges they robbed the home of F. Edson White in Lake Forest, will fight today for admission of a confession attributed to Miller and said to implicate Durand.

Attorney John Prystalski of Chicago, counsel for Durand, and Attorney George Field of Waukegan, representing Miller, will fight admission of the confession. Col. Smith and his associate, Attorney Sidney Block, expect to rest their case this afternoon. Tomorrow Jack's foster mother, Mrs. Scott Durand, owner of Crabtree farm, Lake Bluff, will take the stand in Jack's defense.

SEN. GERRY AND MRS. VANDERBILT TO WED, REPORT

LONDON, Oct. 21.—(AP)—The Evening Standard today says that United States Senator Peter Goellet Gerry of Rhode Island will be married here within a few days to Mrs. Edith Vanderbilt, widow of George Washington Vanderbilt.

Senator Gerry was divorced by his wife in Paris several months ago. The Rhode Island senator is socially prominent, a member of a family famous in American history since early colonial times, and is known as a lawyer, scientist, and philanthropist. He is 46 years old. He is the son of Commodore Elbridge T. Gerry, one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence. Senator Gerry's first wife, the former Mathilde S. Townsend of Washington, D. C., is now Mrs. Summer Welles.

Mrs. Edith Vanderbilt, before her marriage, was Miss Edith S. Dresser of New York. She is a direct descendant of Peter Stuyvesant. Upon the death of Mr. Vanderbilt in 1914, Mrs. Vanderbilt received $250,000 and a life interest in a trust fund of $1,000,000.

TEA

A MAN'S DRINK

by Sir Charles Higham

INDIA TEA is the ideal drink for a man. It refreshes. It tones body and brain. Try a cup each afternoon at 3 o'clock and see how much better you feel at your work. Tea, correctly made, increases energy 20%. Its mental effect is startling. I know—and I want you to know.

I have been told that many American men consider tea-drinking to be effeminate! But what was said of the man who smoked cigarettes twenty years ago—or the man who wore a wrist watch before 1914? No—there is nothing a real man does, that he likes to do, that makes him less of a man.

India Tea is a man's drink in every country of the world, because it's a good stimulating drink, it for no other reason. Try a cup or two tomorrow and you will be glad you took my advice.

A MORE Feminine SILHOUETTE

EXIT the straight line type—enter dainty, more feminine curves with a tapered tendency at the waist. That is fashion's forecast to which all new Fall and Winter styles conform. Can you wear these styles? You positively cannot without "Figure-Grooming." You positively can with "Figure-Grooming." Do this. Go to your favorite corset shop. Have the corsetiere fit you to a Modart "Figure-Grooming" Girdle. Notice how easily this girdle "grooms" your figure to the new fashion and the comfort and ease with which this is accomplished. The change is instantaneous. You are made for the mode. Modart Girdles can be had in a variety of exquisite brocades and batistes at $5.00 and up.

WILDA BENNETT FACES WIFE IN $100,000 SUIT

Mrs. Frey Tells of Woes in Alienation Action.

New York, Oct. 21.—[Special.]—Wilda Bennett, musical comedy star, played a listening part today in the opening of a $100,000 suit brought against her by Mrs. Katherine M. Frey, wife of Charles C. Frey, for alienation of her husband's affections. The heard herself described as "heart broke."

While Mrs. Frey unfolded a story of domestic bliss, which eventually turned to tragedy, before Justice Faber in the supreme court at Mineola, L. I., Miss Bennett, attired in a sport coat, a brown jersey suit, white silk stockings and tan suede pumps, sat impassively in the third row. Frey had a place on one of the front row benches, and followed his wife's story attentively.

Mrs. Frey said she and Frey were married in Louisville on Nov. 8, 1919, when he was a racing bookmaker. On the day before Christmas, 1921, they quarreled, according to Mrs. Frey, and she left him in New Orleans. They were reconciled, however, on Christmas. In 1923 they came to New York. Later that summer each maintained a separate apartment. Until then her husband had been kind and affectionate.

Then came the awakening. Mrs. Frey said her husband told her he did not care to have her visit his apartment because there were people there who gambled.

He then said, she testified: "I want a divorce. If it's money you want I can get you $10,000." She asked him where he would get this money and he replied: "From a woman," according to her testimony.

Recognized Wilda's Voice.

In July, 1923, Mrs. Frey said, she went to her husband's apartment in New York.

"My husband came to the door and asked, 'What do you want?' I said, 'I heard a woman's voice in there.' He said, 'O, I'm busy and I can't talk to you now; there is a man here with me.' I recognized the voice of Miss Bennett, whom I had seen in 'Madame Pompadour,' Mrs. Frey testified.

"Then my husband came out, took hold of me, and dragged me downstairs. I knocked my thumb on the stair railing and nearly broke it. He pushed me against the railing. Some workmen saw us and one of them interfered. Then my husband released me and ran upstairs."

Frey lived in Miss Bennett's home from July to September, 1923, Celeste Baban, the actress' former butler, testified. He once saw Frey attired in his pajamas at the breakfast table, he declared.

SEA PLANTS VIGOROUS IN SPRING.

The sea pastures of green plants eaten by many fish shows greatest vigor and abundance in later winter and spring just as land pastures does.

Briton Moves to U.S.; 'Only Nation Free of Revolt Germ'

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, Oct. 21.—During the trial of the divorce suit in Edinburgh yesterday of Lady Ross against Sir Charles Ross, inventor of a rifle, it was stated that Sir Charles is now domiciled in the United States because he considered it the only country safe against revolution. Correspondence was introduced between him and Emily K. Hoffman, or Dalsiel, West 77th street, New York.

FOREIGN STREET VENDERS CROWD MEXICO CITIES

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Mexico City, Oct. 21.—Federal troops will guard the United States border to prevent smuggling, which loses the government millions of dollars annually. Smuggled goods are being sold through street vendors, most of them immigrants, who, unable to enter the United States, have turned to Mexico. The capital and principal cities are overrun with street vendors, who are practically all learning English with the hope of entering the United States. Many are becoming Mexican citizens with the same object. Mexico City alone has over 15,000 foreign street vendors.

What shall I eat?

What to eat is always a problem. Fat folks think they must eat less; thin people are inclined to eat too much; but science says it is not how much, but what you eat that makes you stout or thin, well or ill.

When people started to talk about correct eating for health, we became interested in the practical application of "vitamins" and "calories." We have put this information into a Booklet, a copy of which you may have.

In this Booklet is a prepared List of Food Values. Meats, fish, vegetables, fruits and dairy products are shown with their correct rating. Read what's in this Booklet and you will quickly understand why some people have rosy cheeks—and why others can eat three big meals a day and still be undernourished.

Each Thompson Restaurant has a limited number of copies. You may have one for the asking, or if you will leave name and address, Booklet will be mailed. Better yet, fill in and mail the Coupon below. Do it now—the Booklet is worth having.

EQUAL SUFFRAGE HAS FREED MAN, WOMAN ASSERTS

British Suffragist Tells Chicagoans Why.

BY GENEVIEVE FORBES HERRICK.

Votes for women have made man free. At least that is what Mrs. Emmeline Pethick-Lawrence, the English suffragist who served five jail sentences in her fight for the ballot, pointed out yesterday at the Morrison hotel to one hundred Chicago women and one British M. P., her own husband, Frederick Pethick-Lawrence, parliament member for Leicester.

"Equal suffrage," declared Mrs. Pethick-Lawrence, before a luncheon meeting of the Chicago branch of the National Woman's party, "has given to men their threefold freedom: economic, social, and emotional." Then she went on to explain it.

Clinging Vine Type Is Out.

Economic freedom has come to the husband of an emancipated woman because the pick me up and carry me type of woman, she maintains, has disappeared, or is rapidly disappearing. The new woman has a hand that not only wears a wedding ring but carries her own check book.

"And even if the wife doesn't work at a gainful occupation," the British feminist said, "she at least realizes the necessity of her doing her part of the work, and will do her share in taking care of the home and the children."

Socially the husband of this new woman is free, the lecturer suggested, because his wife no longer is compelled to limit her friendships to the people to whom he introduces her. And, with her time taken up with her own social interests, he can widen his own arc of contacts.

And then there is the new emotional freedom. It would seem that this philosophy may sound the doom of the blundering stenographer, or may bring her even greater conquests.

Hasn't Time to Be Jealous.

At any rate, Mrs. Pethick-Lawrence maintains that the woman with the ballot and all that goes with it, now makes her own friends, among men as well as women; and is so busy doing worth while things of her own and exchanging views with the people she works with that she has no time to be jealous of her husband's stenographer, be she blonde or brunette.

With man's emancipation pretty well started, women must keep on working, the speaker declared. Especially must they interest themselves in international affairs. They must ask representation in world courts and leagues.

FALL KILLS JANITOR.

Falling down a flight of stairs, James Davis, colored janitor at 2430 West Lake street, was killed yesterday.

of nations; they must work together to bring about world peace, and the must see to it that the condition of woman in the most enlightened countries becomes the norm in all.

Dutch Start Paying Loan

Raised in U. S.; Due in 1932

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

THE HAGUE, Oct. 24.—The Dutch government proposes to start the repayment of the Indian loan issued in the United States in 1926 instead of 1932. The Dutch financial situation has been ameliorated beyond expectations.

Bad weather had reduced the harvest by 3,500,000 tons, he said, but the peasantry should be blamed for upsetting the government's plan for early delivery of Russian grain in the world market to offset the Canadian and Argentine exports, which will appear next month. The peasantry, he said, had tried to hoard grain stocks until spring, when they could get higher prices.

Dutch Start Paying Loan

Raised in U. S.; Due in 1932

THE HAGUE, Oct. 24.—The Dutch government proposes to start the repayment of the Indian loan issued in the United States in 1926 instead of 1932. The Dutch financial situation has been ameliorated beyond expectations.

Bad weather had reduced the harvest by 3,500,000 tons, he said, but the peasantry should be blamed for upsetting the government's plan for early delivery of Russian grain in the world market to offset the Canadian and Argentine exports, which will appear next month. The peasantry, he said, had

PRINCE POSING AS GIRL SHOCKS BRITISH DIGNITY

And Now Wales May Get Some New Managers.

BY JOHN STEELE.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

LONDON, Oct. 21.—British papers have taken up the public cry about the mismanagement of some of the members of the Prince of Wales' recent world tour. The Manchester Guardian, one of the most influential papers in England, today deplores the publication of a photograph of a petulant theatrical on the Reptile on its upward trip. The picture shows the prince dressed as a girl.

"In an ordinary way the photograph of a high spirited young man in a theatrical costume is of interest only to his intimates, but it is noted that such photographs despite the activity of our photo press, are not very common," the paper says.

Not Dignified.

"Young men taking such parts do not consider them sufficiently dignified and they rarely appear in the press. If the Prince of Wales had been the average irresponsible young man there would have been no comment."

"After paying tribute to the real work of the prince's tour, the Guardian says: 'It is even possible that this photograph of the prince as a theatrical young woman will be more common than any other photograph of him,' the paper adds."

May Cause Shakeup.

This puts in a mild form what many people have been saying for some time about the prince's lack of dignity and about this photograph in particular. It is even rumored that there are likely to be some extensive changes in the personnel of his retinue who were responsible for such publicity as this has been getting recently.

SEEK A JURY OF LOVING HUSBANDS FOR THE DICK SUIT

Twelve husbands who love their wives are being sought as jurors to hear the $500,000 alienation of affection suit brought by Mrs. Edythe L. Dick, 27, of 4700 North Racine avenue, against her parents-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Dick of Quincy, Ill. Attorneys representing both sides had picked four jurors in Judge Charles A. Williams' court last night.

Mrs. Dick's loss of her husband's love should be compensated by the payment of half a million dollars will best be considered by married men who have had happy domestic lives, attorneys for both sides said.

One young ventriloquist asked to be excused. He wasn't married, he said, or very well informed as to the duties of a husband. His excuse was accepted.

The Best Cough Syrup Is Home-made
Here's an easy way to save 52, and yet have that cough medicine you ever tried.

You've probably heard of this home-made cough syrup. But have you ever used it? Thousands of families feel that they could hardly keep house without it. It's simple and cheap, but the way it takes hold of a cough will give you a permanent place in your home. Into a pint bottle, pour 2½ ounces of Pinex, then add plain granulated sugar syrup to fill up the pint. Or, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. It tastes good, cures quickly and gives you a full lot of better cough remedy than you could buy ready-made for three times its cost.

It is really wonderful how quickly this home-made remedy conquers a cough—usually in 24 hours or less. It seems to penetrate through every air passage, loosens a dry, hoarse or tight cough, lifts the phlegm, heals the membrane, and gives almost immediate relief. Splendid for throat, colds, hoarseness, croup, bronchitis and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations for throat and chest ailments. To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. Teach your children to use Cuticura. Soapy because it is best for tender skin. Assisted by occasional applications of Cuticura ointment to first signs of irritation, Cuticura keeps the skin and body clean and healthy. Cuticura is cooling and soothing.

Driving the Land-Sharks Out of Florida

ALL OUR GOLD RUSHES, all our oil booms, and all our free land stampedes dwindle by comparison with the torrent of migration pouring into Florida from all parts of the country. If Ponce de Leon's Fountain of Youth had just been found to be a fact and not a fiction, it could scarcely have attracted a greater multitude, remarks the editor of a Maryland daily. The Florida land-rush, says another Southern editor, is admittedly "the most remarkable boom of its kind in the history of such booms." Those on the spot report the motor-roads of the Peninsular State crowded with cars from every State in the Union, while added streams of humanity arrive by train and steamship. The roadsides are dotted with tent-colonies of tourists and fortune-seekers. We read of a new frontier and a new type of pioneer.

But the dangers inherent in all boom conditions are not lacking in this case, and leading Floridians are themselves warning investors to be on their guard against land-sharks and "blue-sky" schemers operating in the name of the State, within and without its borders. A Florida delegation led by Gov. John W. Martin recently asked for the co-operation of the New York press in curbing fraudulent schemes designed to trade upon public interest in Florida's wave of prosperity. The Governor remarked that if investors used "a quarter as much intelligence" in their dealings concerning Florida as in the ordinary run of their business, the danger of being victimized by swindlers would be slight. In behalf of his native State he pleaded earnestly for the truth and nothing but the truth.

"Florida has too much at stake to permit crooked dealings in real estate," remarks the Jacksonville Florida Times-Union, which tells us that it was a Florida advertising club that procured Federal action against a band of alleged Chicago swindlers in Florida real estate. Twelve hundred curbstome brokers, a Miami dispatch tells us, were run out of Florida in one week. "Land swindlers and speculators have done great damage to Florida and its legitimate enterprises and must be put out of business if the State is not to have a setback," says the Washington Post.

The leading feature-story in The Literary Digest this week, October 24 issue, deals with the land-rush to Florida. It presents the subject from every angle and will be read with vast interest by the American public.

How to Make Prohibition Succeed

THE SUCCESS OF PROHIBITION enforcement depends, in the last analysis, not so much on legislation and force as on education and moral suasion, concludes the Rev. F. Ernest Johnson, who wrote the recently published report of the Department of Research and Education of the Federal Council of Churches on Prohibition, and now gives his personal views on the situation of Prohibition enforcement in The Literary Digest this week. After the Federal Government has done its part in effectually drying up the sources of supply which come within its jurisdiction, the rest depends upon the education of the people in the moral and economic significance of Prohibition. This opinion is shared by Dr. Samuel McCrea Cavert, general secretary of the Federal Council, and other "dry" leaders, who find in the much-discussed report not an invitation to modify the Volstead Law, but a challenge to the friends of the Eighteenth Amendment to redouble their efforts for its successful enforcement. But there are other "dry" leaders to whom that report is but a sly truckling to "wet" opinion, ill-timed and ill-founded, and the Board of Temperance, Prohibition and Public Morals of the Methodist Episcopal Church disclaims it altogether.

Opera and Its Stars

A Fascinating Revolution of the Music.
Plot, Action, and Personnel of Seventeen Grand Operas. A Treasure to Music Lovers!
By MABEL WAGNALLS

A musical genius and a poet and brilliant book and scenario-writer, Mabel Wagnalls depicts the new pictures of the operas so vividly that you visualize the action of every scene from the rise of the curtain—even from the opening overture—to the finale.

Operas described are: Elisabetta, Traviata, Macbeth, Madame Butterfly, Lakme, Pagliacci, Orpheus and Eurydice, Faust, Werther, Carmen, Hamlet, Lohengrin, Aida, Huguenots, Flying Dutchman, Semiramide, Pellene and Mefistofele.

To those who love music "Opera and Its Stars" is a gem. The continuous list of operas from page to page.

The book also contains Mabel Wagnalls' personal interviews with great opera singers: Verita, Galli-Curci, Benca, Tulliani, Lohmann, Sembrich, Calvi, Nordica, Pavarotti, Gardoni, etc., and half-tone photographs of each singer.

DEATH PENALTY TO BE ASKED IN DRAGON TRIAL

Juror Opposed to Noose
Excused; Examine 215

Noblesville, Ind., Oct. 21.—[Special.]—It was brought out clearly for the first time this afternoon in the case against D. C. Stephenson, former Ku Klux Klan leader in Indiana, Earl Killoch and Earl Gentry, charged with the murder of Miss Madge Oberholzer, that the state is going to insist on the death penalty. Joseph Lehr, who was in the jury box, qualified for service in every way except he said he was opposed to capital punishment and the state excused him for that reason alone and so announced.

When court adjourned this evening, the eighth day of the trial, 215 men had been in the jury box without a single one of them being definitely accepted. Thirty-one men passed through the jury box today and all but two were excused because they said they had opinions concerning the case. The work of starting on the third special venire of one hundred men for jury service will begin tomorrow morning. William H. Remy of Indianapolis, who has charge of the case, said tonight that he had not yet been able to locate two of the state's most important witnesses. He referred to Miss Mildred Darr, an Indiana university co-ed and former private secretary for Stephenson, and Joseph (Shorty) Friese, who is supposed to have driven Stephenson, Miss Oberholzer and Gentry from Hammond, Ind., where the girl swallowed poison, to Indianapolis. Miss Darr is supposed to be in California, but nothing is known concerning the whereabouts of Friese.

RUSSIA TALKS OF LOOSENING BOND OF CENSORSHIP

MOSCOW, Oct. 21.—Abolition of the censorship on foreign press telegrams and reorganization of the foreign trade monopoly department on a new basis are being seriously considered by the soviet authorities.

Regarding the censorship, it is argued that the period of counter-revolutionary danger is past and the soviet government is now too firmly established to fear anything worse than annoyance as a result of foreign telegraphic freedom from Russia.

It is realized, too, that restriction of press liberty here cannot fail to strengthen malicious reports about

Russian affairs from the Baltic states and other sources outside the soviet union. Therefore, it seems more logical to give foreign correspondents here a free hand, but with gentle reminder that they will be held personally responsible for the accuracy and good faith of their dispatches.

White Teeth

—but what would
the X-Ray Show?

BEAUTIFUL, white teeth, free from decay, are not safe unless the gums are healthy. If pyorrhea attacks your gums, an X-Ray would reveal how quickly the infection spreads to the root sockets. If pyorrhea is not checked, you will lose your teeth.

Tender, bleeding gums

Pyorrhea's danger signal
DENTAL clinics since 1908 have proved the effectiveness of Pyorrhoid Powder as an aid in correcting bleeding gums, in strengthening tender gums, in hardening soft gums.

It keeps the teeth white and clean. Its tonic and stimulating qualities help healthy gums to keep healthy. Pyorrhoid Powder is medicated with Dentinol, a gum-tissue healing agent widely used by dentists in the treatment of pyorrhea.

The economical dollar package contains six month's supply. At all druggists. Send for free sample and booklet on causes and prevention of pyorrhea.

To Them That Have—

Every little while a dreamer comes forward with a plan to equalize the distribution of wealth. He forgets that he must first equalize the distribution of the acquisitive bent. So none of the schemes has yet proved practicable. Right or wrong the scriptural adage, "to them that have shall be given," still holds true.

Comparatively few people inherit wealth. If we don't hold on to part of what we get we don't have. The beginners of great fortunes had to start by holding on.

This bank would like to increase the number of them that have. Non-savers and spasmodic savers make too much fuss about saving. They think it takes the joy out of living. Of course this isn't true.

When living expenses are organized, provision can always be made for a "holding." After that other expenses can be taken care of and with the surplus one can indulge in extravagance and have a clear conscience.

If you wish, our Service Station will help you organize your finances so you can be among them that have.

ANOTHER INTERESTING SALES RECORD of THE 49TH STATE

45% Gain in Sales for Dutch Masters Cigars in The 49th State

--using The St. Louis Globe-Democrat Exclusively

Mark up another advertising success for The Newspaper of The 49th State.

New sales records for Dutch Masters Cigars are being established in the St. Louis territory

. . . . A 74% increase in one month over the same month of a year ago Gains of 40% and more during five of the first nine months of the year and not a single month in which the gain has been less than 30%.

. . . . an average monthly sales increase of 45% over the first nine months of 1924.

It's an outstanding record in cigar sales accomplished by advertising exclusively in The St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Consistently for four years Dutch Masters Cigars have been advertised in The Globe-Democrat—exclusively—with the exception of 1924, when the second St. Louis paper carried 8,038 agate lines and The Globe-Democrat carried 7,530 lines.

This year, with the entire appropriation concentrated in The Globe-Democrat, St. Louis' Largest Daily, sales are far greater than during the same period of last year, when the appropriation was divided between the two papers.

In considering the media to carry this year's enlarged campaign, the manufacturer, advertising agency and St. Louis distributor were unanimous in their choice of The Globe-Democrat. The Globe-Democrat alone.

Results in previous years proved to them conclusively that The Globe-Democrat yields maximum returns from advertising dollars spent to influence men in this great market.

Results this year have proved it again. 17,078 lines used exclusively in The Globe-Democrat have carried Dutch Masters to a 45% increase in sales.

And this gain represents practically solid turnover of retail stock.

According to The Stickney-Hoelscher Cigar Company, distributors, St. Louis, thorough distribution in The 49th State was secured during their first twelve months of Dutch Masters advertising in The Globe-Democrat, starting in May, 1923.

We don't know how many smokers there are among the 1,100,000 families in The 49th State, but we do know that St. Louis' Largest Daily reaches more of them than any other St. Louis newspaper even claims to reach.

Manufacturers and sales organizations selling merchandise purchased by men can obtain some mighty interesting and enlightening facts about this market from the Service and Promotion Department and the Research Division of The Globe-Democrat, and from the nearest representative. Ask him to call.

HAROLD TEEN—MEN FROM THE BIG OPEN SPACES

Panne Velvet and Dyed Blue-Gray Fox

by Corinne Lowe

NEW YORK.—(Special Correspondence.)—Already first papers have been served on Miss Brock by Mr. Coak. By this we mean there are many symptoms of unrest apparent in the union of these two, and that a partial divorce is already breaking up the ensemble home. More and more each party in the affair is going his own way, and in some of the costumes which are today called ensembles, takes an old servant eye to find a deep concord of spirit.

In today's sketch, however, we see a good old-fashioned ensemble family where each consort is mutually dependent upon the other. Lucien Lelong designed this stunning afternoon model, and he made the frock of crepe and the coat of panne velvet in sapphire blue. The coat is one of the new three-quarter affairs with a pronounced shoulder flare, and it is trimmed in dyed blue-gray fox. Blue satin piping emphasizes the flare. As for the frock, this is adorned with small steel sequins and red beads.

With this costume in vogue, one of the new turbans in which we are indulging ourselves just now. Of gray satin, it is finished at the side by an enormous bow of self material. This is a creation from Rebus.

A FRIEND IN NEED

BY SALLY JOY BROWN.
Deserted by Husband.

"I have a neighbor, the mother of boys, 8, 10, and a girl, 2, who has just been deserted by her husband. They all need winter clothing. Can some reader send them discarded clothing, or a bed, or a coal heater? The mother is almost beside herself from worry, and any help will be gratefully accepted.

"This case is a worthy one, and if you will investigate it, as we have your heart will go out to this needy family."

MEN'S FASHIONS

BY A. T. GALICO.
Scotch Plaids Again.

NEW YORK.—(Special Correspondence.)—The Campbells are still coming to America as far as winter fashions are concerned. The brightly colored Scotch plaids are again numbered among the popular neck pieces which are a combination of decoration and something to keep the neck warm. Some of these Scotch plaids are gay and others. What you will select will depend upon whether you want to draw attention to your neck or not, and whether or not you wish to look like a member of a Highland clan on dress parade.

However, the brighter plaids are effective when they are carefully combined with the rest of the costume, and need not cause any one eye-strain. The Scotch casimere mufflers come in subdued color schemes as well, for the more modestly inclined dressers who do not wish to be conspicuous in any way.

The patterns include Tartan plaids, checks, small checks blending with overplaids, stripes, plaids with borders, and such. These mufflers come in colors that harmonize well with the newer shades in men's suits and overcoats.

The only warning I think of to offer in regard to the Scotch plaid mufflers is that they are not suitable for wear with evening dress. Of course, for that matter, neither are any colored mufflers. But the plaids would stand out more incorrectly than would a plain dark colored scarf.

I recently noted a smart setup consisting of a brown suit, brown and white striped shirt, brown and yellow figured tie, top coat of another shade of brown than the suit, hat of brown felt, and plaid muffler in brown, yellow and green coloring.

Bright Sayings of the Children

The Tribune will pay $6 for each child's saying printed. The story told must never have been printed in any magazine or paper. It is not possible to acknowledge or return unsolicited contributions. Write on one side of the paper. Address bright sayings to Ainslie Box, The Tribune, Chicago.

Jimmy was moving away from town and wanted Billy, his next door neighbor, to buy his dog. Billy wanted it, but his mother said no. Billy said, "Lending the dog by a heavy rope, he appealed to Billy's father, and he also refused, saying, 'We don't want that common cur.' Jimmy pulled the dog in for closer inspection and said, 'He isn't pretty, but he's good. Why, he's a pedigree mongrel!'"

My mother took my brother to visit a woman who had no children. Cyril was told he must not ask for anything to eat. He became restless and asked to go home. The hostess said, "Why, George, don't you like my house?" "Sure," he said; "it is a nice house, but you haven't any pantry!"

BEWARE THE COUGH OR COLD THAT HANGS ON

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creosolene, a new medical discovery with two-fold action. It soothes and heals the inflamed membrane and in white germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosolene is recognized by the greatest medical authorities as the greatest healing agent for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creosolene contains, in addition to creosolene, healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membrane, and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosolene goes to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, strikes the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germ.

Creosolene is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchitis, asthma, whooping cough and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for relieving the throat after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. Creosolene Company, Atlanta, Ga. (Incl.)

TRIBUNE COOK BOOK

BY JANE EDDINGTON.
Banana Omelet.

If for any reason you want to make an omelet without the least bit of fat—except that in the egg yolk, which you cannot get out—try one with BANANAS. There are those, you know, who cannot even make an omelet without making it so greasy that you need to tie a napkin around your neck when you eat it.

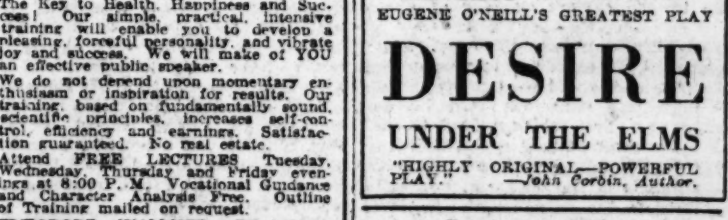

The reason you can make a banana omelet without butter is that you use some sugar in a pan, and melted sugar, if soft, keeps anything from sticking to a pan as well as fat, or at any rate while it is hot.

The recipe and method of making a banana omelet is something I dug out of a French cook book many years ago, just after a European food pilgrimage, and I will remember that one family who tried it went into ecstasies over it, but liked the red banana better for it than the yellow. First, for two persons and keeping close to the French, this was the procedure with two eggs, one fine banana, two tablespoons of sugar, one-half tablespoon of butter, and a pinch of salt.

Put the sugar in a small pan and shake it about so as to cover the bottom. Cut the banana in slices and put them on the sugar. Heat up gently, so as to caramelize, but not burn the sugar, and fry bananas in it. Turn the slices after a little and cook until they are almost melted, then gather them towards the center of the pan, so that this caramelized layer of fruit will form a firm layer on the outside of the omelet. Put the butter around them and melt you can manage without it, all the well beaten yolks, cook them a bit, then add stiffly beaten whites and fold at once before they puff so much that the yolks will not cover them. Cook now just long enough to heat the whites well.

In practice it is really better to leave an inch of frying pan all around not covered with the sugar. It is always best when the sugar boils to lift the pan from fire to turn the bananas. Pricking the yolks when they are setting a bit keeps them light. A single teaspoon of butter may suffice and as much for seasoning as anything else, but if carefully handled and taken up promptly this is not needed.

CHURCH COUNCIL AT ODDS ABOUT MERGING BOARDS

Congregationalists Also Argue Race Question.

BY THE REV. W. B. NORTON.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
Washington, D. C., Oct. 21.—(Special.)—Arguments for and against the merger of benevolent boards of the church occupied most of today's session of the national council of Congregational churches. The discussion seems to come nearer being a scrap than any other before the council as questions of doctrine and discipline which agitate other ecclesiastical bodies appear to be absent from the Congregational council.

The report of the committee of twelve appointed to consider the merger was presented by Dr. William H. Hays of Bridgeport, Conn., a former moderator of the council. It calls for the merging of all of the boards now existing, including the boards of the American Board of Christian Education, the Board of Christian Missions, the Board of Christian Literature, and the Board of Christian Social Service. It also calls for a merger of the two missionary magazines, home and foreign, and the weekly Congregationalist into one publication, the magazine taking the form of a monthly lesson of the Congregationalist.

Fear Losing Trust Funds.
The chief attack against the merger was the fear of endangering trust funds. The decisions of the Supreme court of Massachusetts against the legality of the merger of Andover Theological seminary and the divinity school of Harvard university and the merger of the Massachusetts School of Technology with Harvard were cited as examples of the dangers involved. Dr. Charles R. Brown, dean of Yale divinity school, opposed the merger.

"Instead of spending one time tightening a nut here and a bolt there in our church machinery we had better go back to our churches and work the machinery we have," Dr. Brown said. The Andover-Harvard experience ought to warn us against tampering with trust funds. We were told once before that if we would consolidate our two papers, the Congregationalist and the Advance, we would have a much larger circulation. Today the consolidated paper has a smaller circulation than the Congregationalist had alone before the consolidation."

Babson Favors Merger.
Robert W. Babson, statistical expert, favored the merger in the interests of the laymen who, he said, stay away from the church because its methods are antiquated. "We seem more anxious to find pensions for men for whom we feel sorry than we do to move forward and keep up with the twentieth century," he said. "We need not be concerned about the trust funds already in hand, for we can safeguard them, but we ought to feel concerned for the funds we have not yet obtained. The merger will mean more large gifts in the future."

The race question was introduced by John R. Rogers, millionaire of Brooklyn, N. Y., one of the three inventors of the Merger-Huntley type machine.

No Place for Negro.
"It is time we should consider how acute the race question is," said Mr. Rogers. "When in this city, where Abraham Lincoln wrought and died, we cannot hold a banquet and entertain a large number of guests in a hotel which will serve the Negro members of our council at the same table with the whites."

Dr. Robert E. Speer, New York, in an address on interrace questions, declared the race problem can be solved not by amalgamating the races but by Christian brotherhood, recognizing that each race has a contribution to make to society. "The white race, which has done more than any other to spread half-breeds across the world, is the last race who ought to protest against amalgamation," he said. "The 18,000 bastards in the Philippines born by soldiers mating with Filipino women shows something of the guilt of the white man."

Dr. Speer also stated he believed we had come to the end of the war system and that there were those in the audience who would live to see the whole world repudiate war.

Hungry Orders Censor to Watch Crossword Puzzles

(Copyright, 1925, by The New York Times.)
VIENNA, Austria, Oct. 21.—Censorship of crossword puzzles is the latest measure to insure stability of the Hapsburg government in Hungary, according to a decree issued by the attorney general today, all crossword puzzles to appear in newspapers, together with their solutions, must be submitted to a censor prior to publication. The measure has been promulgated because the other day a legitimist newspaper published a crossword puzzle with the solution of "Long Live Otto."

RADIO PROGRAMS FOR TODAY

(Thursday, Oct. 22.)

(Standard time throughout.)

SPEND a glowing, moonlit hour at the canals of Venice this evening with the W-G-N radio production company! Let yourself be wafted away to the old palazzi, the square of San Mark's church, the city of picturesque gondoliers, during this musical novelty entitled "In a Gondola," to be presented between 8 and 9 o'clock this evening from W-G-N. This Chicago Tribune station on the Drake hotel.

You will hear the pretty Venetian madrigals and sweet harmony, the wandering young minstrel with the rose in his hair strumming his mandolin, and the laughing, singing gondoliers humming snatches of song to the tune of a soft accord.

Depicting the Venetian scene in this production will be the following members of the W-G-N company: Marie Sweet, soprano; Kathleen Ryan, contralto; Paul Mallory and Dan Baker, tenors; Frank Bennett, baritone, and Mark Love, basso. They will be assisted by the Venetian string trio, Joseph Zisman, mandolinist, and Samuel Guarnelli, accordionist.

W-G-N's premier dance orchestra, Jack Chapman and his Drake hotel purveyors of terpsichorean tunes, and the Blackstone string quartet, which features Maurice Blumenthal in bits of song, headline the 10 to 11 hour of up to date jazz, during which period they will be assisted by soloists.

Opening the day's program will be a talk by a representative of the National Association of Farm Equipment Manufacturers. This talk begins at 12:30 p. m. and is followed by the luncheon concert by Henry Selinger and his Drake hotel ensemble and the Blackstone string quartet.

Rocking chair time at 2:30 p. m. will offer Mrs. Julia Taft Bayne, in "Memoirs of Lincoln." Mrs. Bayne knew Lincoln when he was in the heyday of his power in Washington.

DETAILS OF TODAY'S W-G-N PROGRAM.
12:30 to 1:30 p. m.—Talk by a representative of the National Association of Farm Equipment Manufacturers.
1:30 to 2:30 p. m.—Luncheon concert by Henry Selinger and his Drake hotel ensemble and the Blackstone string quartet.
2:30 to 3:30 p. m.—Rocking chair time; Mrs. Julia Taft Bayne on "Memoirs of Lincoln."
3:30 to 4:15 p. m.—Teatime with music by the Smith, Field & Co. tenor orchestra.
4:15 to 5:15 p. m.—Time signals by the Elgin National Watch company.
5:15 to 6:15 p. m.—Closing stock quotations by the Elgin National Watch company.
6:15 to 7 p. m.—Dinner concert by the Drake hotel ensemble and the Blackstone string quartet.
7 to 8 p. m.—"In a Gondola," a W-G-N radio production.
8 to 9 p. m.—Jack Chapman and his Drake hotel dance orchestra, the Blackstone hotel dance orchestra.

WLB PROGRAM
"Meet the Boys!" That's what you're requested to do this evening by the WLB radio station, which is the new Liberty magazine station, which broadcasts on a wave length of 302.5 meters. WLB was formerly WTAS. Fred Hamm wants you to shake hands, ethereally, with each component part of his baker's dozen of "eggs," and they are to be presented by a rhymed introduction, following which they will strum, blow, or wiggle whatever is "their own, their native" instrument. After you've met them all, they will combine in a series of selections as only they can play them. Assisting them during this hour of riotous music and fun will be Sam and Salvatore Guarnelli, the accordion duellists, and other soloists.

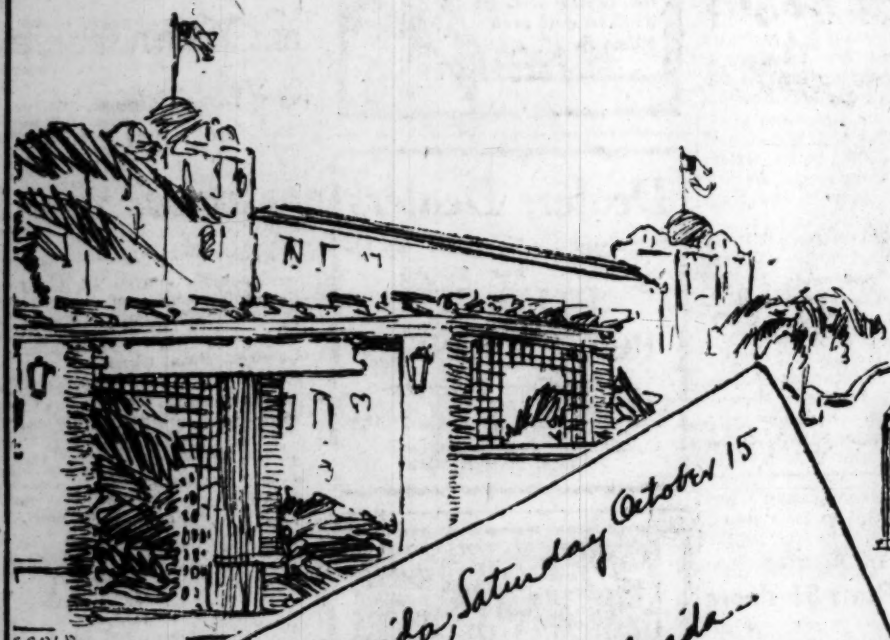

During WLB's first hour on the air this evening, between 7 and 8 o'clock, Fred Hamm and the entire orchestra will present their "Hamm Happiness Hour," filled with rollicking jazz numbers, solos by Vincent McAuley, the plump and expert trombonist; Dave Bennett, the debonair saxophonist; Jesse Sutton, the nimble-fingered pianist, and Hamm's other entertaining soloists.

Jack Chapman and his Drake hotel dance orchestra and the Blackstone hotel dance orchestra, assisted by jazz soloists, vocal and instrumental.

"I Can Just
Picture It
Now—"

Florida, Saturday October 15

Dear Emma
Jack and I are in Florida—have been here most a month now—
It's simply adorable. Have visited most of the cities one hears so much about—and guess what!
We've bought a marvelous house in Arcadia Gardens. Words
simply can't describe its beauties.
And we're going to build the cunningest little bungalow imaginable.
I can just picture it now—while
I'm writing—Climate here is wonderful—
And to think you're trying to get freezing weather—Just wish you were here—
Babe is fine—Sweeter than honey—play out with Sam every blessed day—So write more later—Love Gurne—

YOU, too, would enthuse could you visit Arcadia, Arcadia Villa and Arcadia Gardens. On the banks of the charming Peace River stands Arcadia—a well-known Florida inland resort and second largest shipping point for citrus fruits in all Florida—served by three great railroads—the Charlotte Harbor Railroad, the Seaboard Air Line and the Atlantic Coast Line. Fully as important as these railroads is the Dixie Highway—one of America's greatest motor routes—which runs through Arcadia. The new Gulf to Ocean Highway—the shortest and most direct east and west route across Florida also runs through this city. One of Florida's great harbors—the Charlotte Harbor—is just 24 miles away.

Born of the prosperity which the awakening of Florida has brought to Arcadia is a proposed new townsite—Arcadia Villa—where homes are already being built, where spacious avenues, sidewalks, and hard surfaced roads are being rushed to completion, and where a fine new hotel is soon to be built.

Arcadia Gardens, bordering Arcadia Villa and just six miles from Arcadia, invites you to participate and profit in its development.

KRUEZ FORMS
LANCE POINT OF PENN DR

Stocky Full Back
Human Plow

BY ED POLLOCK.

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 21.—The lance point of the attack which will be thrown on Penn State's starbacks when Penn State plays in Philadelphia Saturday is a full back of midwestern origin.

Albert Kruezer, Pennsylvania's date for all-American full back, is a graduate of Western High school. Kruezer is a plunger, and in the cracking a line he has few equals. He stands only five feet eight, but is almost as wide as he is tall. He weighs 195 pounds.

Great, heavy legs give Kruezer tremendous driving power which enables him to break an enemy line open and to carry on for that yard, when eleven men more seem to be hanging on his shoulders.

Goes Through—Not Over

Kruezer is not fast, as speed is a quick starter and his is grinded through the line, not it. When there are no holes in the Pennsylvania full back is not to jumping as most plungers do. He hits it, and to date he has sufficient force to split any human he has faced.

"Little Albert," a nickname Kruezer has earned, has been about as fine a punter as one eastern gridironer. He booted against Yale and averaged 48. That's a good enough record, statistics do not do him justice. Several times he placed his punts so that with remarkable accuracy—so that they would roll bounds close to the Blue goal. One ball he drove from his own 70 yards on the fly. A slight vored him.

Kruezer is a placement kicker. Three times since he began his career last season he has won with boots from the field. His punts were the winning ones against Columbia and Georgetown, and the three point victory over Yale last Saturday was a Kruezer from the 27 yard line.

Power on Defense.

Kruezer can scarcely be termed a forward passer, and doesn't the necessary speed for off line running. Defensively he is support to a concrete line. He directly behind his forwards and other team has the ball, and up anything that looks like a in the first defense.

The Pennsylvania back field is composed of players of four distinct types. Kruezer is the star whose light steadily throughout the game. Rogers, a Camden, N. J., boy, in dazzling brilliancy occasional sometimes fades to mediocrity. Fields, a citizen of Lebanon, Pa., is the fastest man on the team, never been an offensive trump. Rogers and Fields are the backs. The worth of Alfred Lequart back, is Rogers, the student of football. He is an excellent strategist, and a cool rather colorless leader.

Leith plays a wing half back when the enemy is attacking. Rogers is the safety man on line of defense. Rogers also is a fair catcher of punts and a field runner.

All East Talks of Line

The Pennsylvania line has a talk of the east. It was said that the Red and Blue would along the forward defense a graduation of two regular tackle and two guards, but Leith and Wray have weaved together line men who have the every team the Quakers have up to this time.

Karl Robinson, the center, is a star. He is a superb punter, a hard, capable worker who does not let the eye of the Quacker does. The guards, Dick Snyder and Pils, are both new men this year. Snyder is an exceptional player who has played their Yale opponent so often that Kruezer did not gain through their position. Pennsylvania's ends, George and Don Singer, are consistent performers, but the Quaker system of defense is to smash the interference, and although the Quakers take little credit but many bruise

ILIGAN DRAINS HOBBLES FOR GRANGE

YOST'S ELEVEN RESOLVED RED SHAN'T REPEAT

Fans, Meanwhile,
Argue and Bet.

YOST HURRYING 'EM UP

Ann Arbor, Mich., Oct. 21.—[Special.]—Coach Fielding H. Yost has taken complete charge of the Michigan football team, working early and late to put his men in shape to win from Illinois Saturday. His assistants are on the field each day, but it is the Old Man himself who is doing all the coaching these days. The defeat received at the hands of Grange and company last year seared the heart of the veteran coach, and he will not trust any one but himself to put the finishing touches on the varsity. The squad held another secret practice today, but no heavy work was given the Wolverines, as the coaches are taking no chances on injuries.

BY WALTER ECKERSALL.

Can Red repeat? With thousands of Chicagoans making preparations to attend the homecoming struggle between Illinois and Michigan at Champaign Saturday, the question uppermost in the minds of most of them is whether Capt. Red Grange of Illinois will repeat the runs of last year and give his team a victory over one of Illinois' most respected athletic rivals.

Illinois alumni living in Chicago believe Grange can deliver again. Graduates of Michigan declare the Illinois captain will not cut the capers which started the football world last year. In fact, both factions are so wrought up over the possibilities of Grange's going away for snaillike runs that several wagers have been made on the probable length of Grange's longest run. Michigan men assert Benny Friedman will gain more ground than Grange, and this also has led to several wagers. Wolverine alumni declare that if Michigan can stop Grange the game will be won by Yost's versatile attack, an offense which combines the old and new game.

Big Job for Grange.

It is asking a lot of Grange to defeat a team which has already demonstrated its all round ability. The Illinois leader, however, is a game football player and, despite lack of support, he has played splendid football this fall. He will be a marked man Saturday afternoon and if he gets away he will be deserving of still more credit.

Judging from their general play in the Indiana game, the Maize and Blue players have more speed and are a whole lot more than Michigan team of recent years. They make sure of their man and then lunge for him with all their speed and power. They tackled in this manner against Wisconsin and there is every reason to believe the same sort of tackling will feature their defensive play against Illinois. Yost will send his strongest team on the field for the first kick-off. The team came through the hard struggle with Wisconsin last Saturday without serious injury. Reports from Ann Arbor have it that Yost has evolved some special formations for this game, as he has some smart players for executing tricky plays.

Illini Material Weak.

Coach Zuppke is sure to have some foxy plays built around Grange and his players. In justice to the game little coach, who has done so much for Illinois football, it must be said that this year's material does not match up with this year's pulling team. Zuppke has not complained, but is doing everything that is humanly possible to put a team on the field Saturday afternoon which will be a match for Michigan. Zuppke is resourceful and if the game goes against him in the early stages Michigan may be called upon to stop a varied forward pass attack. Judging from past performances of the two teams this year Michigan has a slight edge in the line and on the ends. Friedman is a more dangerous quarterback than Hall, who is a steady pilot and clever general. Grange, of course, is superior to any Michigan back, while the others are about on a par.

Illinois will be slightly handicapped in kicking. By this it is not meant that Earl Britton will not hold his own with Gilbert, but it will be practically a certainty that Britton will kick every time this is pulled from his position at guard. On the other hand, Gilbert is in a better position to take his kicks or use the punt formation for forward passes or runs. This is a greater handicap for Illinois than most fans think.

Both Threaten With Passes.

Open play should feature the struggle. Michigan has leaned toward the end runs and long forward passes most of the season, and it is assured that Illinois will be pulling for the Orange and Blue should also have a strong forward pass attack with Grange shooting the oval to Kaseell or some other eligible player from a running formation. It will be interesting to watch the forward passing of both teams. Yost is using the long pass far down the field. The Michigan coach generally manages to get his two ends and one back down under the foot. In this manner he has three receivers down

Capt. Joseph Willson of Penn is a tower of strength Chicago must reckon with at tackle when the Ma-sons meet the easterners at Philadelphia Saturday.

MATTY'S SON MADE DIRECTOR IN BOSTON CLUB

Tributes Paid Christy for Work in Baseball.

Boston, Mass., Oct. 21.—(AP)—The Boston National baseball club paid double tribute to its late president, Christy Mathewson, at its annual meeting today. It elected his son, Christopher Jr., as a director, and adopted resolutions offered by Mayor James M. Curley, a director of the club, which eulogized "Matty" as the "incomparable leader and exemplar of the national game."

Sophomore at Bucknell.

Judge Emil B. Fuchs of New York was elected president and Albert M. Powell, vice president and treasurer. Young Mathewson is a sophomore at Bucknell college, of which his father was a graduate. It was announced that all the Brave players had signed their contracts for next season except Jim Welch, outfielder, and Dick Burrus, first baseman.

Wilson, Star Tackle.

Joe Wilson, left tackle, is the captain. He is a superb player for endurance, a hard, capable worker, but he cannot fill the eye of the spectators with his own plays. Dick Snyder and Bob Jones are both new men this year, and have done exceptional work. They have helped their Yale opponents to such extent that Kruezer did most of his winning through their positions. Pennsylvania's ends, George Thayer and Ben Singer, are consistent, dependable performers, but under the new system of defense their job is made more difficult, an important factor in the team's task, bringing about a slight skill fracture.

Illinois Prep Dies from Grid Injury

Rockyford, Ill., Oct. 21.—(AP)—A young man, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. August Rosenberger of Percy, Iowa, died here today, following an injury sustained in a high school football game at Rockyford, Ill., last week ago. Infection developed at a slight skull fracture.

MIDDY TACKLE RUNS 80 YARDS FOR TOUCHDOWN

Eddy Blocks Kick and Holds Ball.

Annapolis, Md., Oct. 21.—[Special.]—The feature of this afternoon's practice between the Naval academy varsity and squad B was a run of eighty yards for a touchdown by Dan Eddy, big tackle and stroke of the Navy's championship Poughkeepsie crew. Eddy blocked a kick on his own twenty yard line, held on to the ball as it struck him amidships, and dashed down the field for a score. Determined to get his team fit for the game against Michigan at week end from Saturday, Capt. Lantz, guard, Osburn, center, and Shapley, full back, were kept out of the scrimmage, their places being taken by Pearce, Poerner, and Ranford.

ARMY STAGES OPEN DRILL

West Point, N. Y., Oct. 21.—[Special.]—Open practice, viewed by a throng of cadets and other followers, marked the program in the Army camp today, as the soldier eleven went through its gridiron workout. Being the mid-week rehearsal, it was prolonged longer than usual, as all military drills for the afternoon were called off. Head Coach McEwan staged a stiff defensive scrimmage with the scrubs, as well as a brief offensive engagement. During the latter portion of the afternoon, Seaman, Sprague, Saunders, and Wilson were not used at all today and are unlikely to get any scrimmage this week.

YALE PLAYS FROSH

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 21.—[Special.]—Yale today played a thirty minute practice game between the varsity and freshmen in preparation for the Brown struggle of Saturday. The match also served as a tonic for the 1925 players, who will meet Culver academy from Indiana in the bowl the same afternoon. No change was made from the varsity lineup which yesterday was given the most general shake-up of the season, and tonight the announcement was authorized that it is likely that the same lineup will be flung against the Brown Bear at the coming week-end.

HARVARD PLANS DEFENSE

Cambridge, Mass., Oct. 21.—[Special.]—Harvard's football session this afternoon was given over almost entirely to defensive drilling against the style of Dartmouth offense which the Crimson expects to meet in the stadium on Saturday. The varsity team had nearly forty-five minutes of this work in dummy scrimmage against the scrubs and then the first set of substitutes went into action for similar experience against the Dartmouth offerings, as interpreted by the Cambridge scrubs.

PITT-CARNEGIE TECH.

Pittsburgh, Pa., Oct. 21.—[Special.]—The University of Pittsburgh-Carnegie Tech football game and the dedication of the new $2,000,000 Pitt stadium here Saturday are expected to attract 60,000 to 70,000. For years Carnegie Tech was in a much lower class than the university, in a football sense, but under the coaching of Judge Wally Steffen they have become an equal rival of the Panthers. Steffen's teams have won the last two years by one touchdown margin, and the Panthers have been going better this year, so Saturday's game appears close, with either team having a chance to win.

COLONELS, SEALS BEGIN 9 GAME SERIES TODAY

San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 21.—(AP)—The Louisville baseball team, champion of the American association, arrived here today for its nine game series with the San Francisco Seals beginning tomorrow. The visiting team, 25 strong, worked out today at Recreation park. The Seals are about the strongest outfit gathered together on the Pacific coast for many seasons.

WANAMAKER TO JUDGE HORSES IN NATIONAL SHOW

Chicago Riding Club Gets Expert.

Horses in the harness division will not be entirely neglected at the national show to be conducted by the Chicago Riding club opening here Dec. 8. William H. Wanmaker of Philadelphia has accepted an invitation to serve as judge of the harness classes. "Unusual interest has been indicated by the number of early entries in the harness events," Capt. Max Corpening, director of the club, said yesterday.

Looke Accepts Invitation.

There is no better horse show judge in the country than Mr. Wanmaker and his coming to Chicago indicates more than ever that our show is to attract interest in every section of America. Richard Y. Looker, widely known Canadian sportsman, accepted an invitation last week to serve as judge of the gaited horses, and other officials, equally as prominent, are expected to become members of the official family of the riding club show within the next few days.

Keen Competition Expected.

There is to be no one judge for each of the classes except the hunting and jumping classes, for which there will be two. Capt. Corpening announced yesterday the early entries exceeded all expectations. They indicate the biggest and most keenly contested show ever held in this country, he predicted.

LANDIS MAILS PIRATES WORLD SERIES CHECKS

Kenesaw M. Landis, commissioner of baseball, yesterday attached his signature to the checks that the Pirates paid to the players who won the baseball championship of the world.

The Pittsburgh players were mailed checks totaling $142,650.56, which was divided into 35 shares. Twenty-six players and Manager McKee each received checks for $5,332.72, while Fred Clark, vice president and assistant manager, Chick Fraser and William Hinckman, scouts, received $1,000 each. J. J. Onslow, coach, and Sammy Wattles, secretary of the club, received the same amount as the players. The sum of $500 went to J. Fogarty, the groundskeeper, $250 to Billy McCarry, the clubhouse boy, and another $250 to J. Devine, a scout. George Asten, the trainer, got $1,777.57 and George Haas and L. F. Thompson, players, were awarded shares of $500 and $1,000, respectively. J. C. Oldham, the left handed pitcher shared to the extent of $2,055.14. Commissioner Landis plans to mail checks to the de-throned Senators before the end of the week.

CARROLL ELEVEN AND LAKE FOREST CLASH SATURDAY

Waukegan, Wis., Oct. 21.—[Special.]—Although Lake Forest college has defeated Michigan State, Carroll college will invade Lake Forest Saturday determined to upset the Illinois eleven. Carroll has a strong team of veterans, having scored 268 points in its games against Northwestern college of Naperville, Milwaukee Normal, Milton, and Great Lakes.

Room Problem Solved for Fans at Illini Game

Champaign, Ill., Oct. 21.—(AP)—Fans who plan to attend the annual University of Illinois homecoming festivities, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, may secure rooming accommodations from the accommodations committee, which has headquarters at the Illinois Central station. A special booth has been arranged and will be in operation, starting this afternoon and continuing until after the Michigan-Illinois game Saturday afternoon. These rooms are in Champaign and Urbana homes. There will be rooms for all those wishing such accommodations. Incoming guests have been asked to make room reservations.

WHEN THEY MEET—FIREWORKS!

Purdue Loses Guard and Back; Rockne Plays Fool Gophers

Lafayette, Ind., Oct. 21.—[Special.]—Coach Jimmy Phelan and Noble Kizer, who are worried because of the loss of Full Back Dodge Gladders and Don Cunningham, guard, drilled the Purdue varsity a long time this afternoon in the last real workout. The Bollweavers will have before playing Wisconsin. Dummy scrimmage was the main work, the team rehearsing all of its plays against the frosh and smoothing its defense. The sound will leave here tomorrow night for Madison and the first 1925 Big Ten game for the Old Gold and Black. Coach Phelan says the broken bones in Gladders' left foot will keep the star full back out for the rest of the season. Cunningham, suffering with a broken nose, is not expected to be able to play before the game with Northwestern here Nov. 14.

INDIANA.

Bloomington, Ind., Oct. 21.—[Special.]—Rehearsing that Indiana, in its game with Miami Saturday, will be up against a team that has not been scored on this season. Coach W. A. Ingram conducted the longest practice of the season today. Four large floodlights and the ghost ball were used for the first time. Navy Bill has a wholesome respect for the Miami eleven and is leaving nothing undone to strengthen weak spots that cropped out in the Syracuse game last Saturday. The coach is not satisfied with the way Indiana plays worked Saturday. Today's drill consisted almost exclusively of plays intended to improve the offense of the forward wall.

OHIO STATE.

Columbus, O., Oct. 21.—[Special.]—Ohio State's freshman footballers were vanquished today by Wilco's second team in a practice game witnessed by several hundred students. Although beaten by the better trained upper classmen, the yearlings showed up well and the Scarlet and Gray coach was well pleased with next year's prospects with the varsity. Mitchell, substitute half back, starred for the second team. Of the freshmen Gray and Albanese, Columbus backfield men, and Alber, star end from Toledo, showed up best. The regular team then practiced plays which will be used against Iowa Saturday. Flood lights and ghost balls were used.

16 Year Old Girl Rides to Victory in Irish Stake

BELFAST, Ireland, Oct. 21.—(AP)—Miss Elizabeth Milne Barbour, sixteen year old daughter of John Milne Barbour, parliamentary secretary to the Irish finance minister, today won the Irish Cesarewitch at Curragh, astride the horse Bracconi.

10,000 One Dollar Seats for Denver U. Football Games

Denver, Colo., Oct. 21.—(AP)—Ten thousand seats in the new University of Denver stadium will be available to spectators at $1 and high school students at 50 cents. This is the new scale of prices put into effect today by University of Denver authorities. Five thousand seats will be available at $1.50, the remaining at $2, while box seats will be $2.50, under the price revision, it was announced. The stadium seats 35,000 people.

DE PAUL BRUSHES UP ON PLAYS FOR COLUMBIA GAME

Forward passing, end run plays, and goal kicking formations in proportionate quantities made up Coach Eddie Anderson's program for his De Paul team. On defense, Barrett played safety man. Krueus made some good gains on his line smashes, while shifty open field runner by Rueland varied the attack. The varsity's forward passing game was not very successful, the scrub secondary defense proving able to cover the receivers a good share of the time.

Other camps on page 3, Sports.

the field, against two for the defense. The play is nicely checked in that no runback can be made, and if the pass is intercepted Yost has gained as much ground as if the ball were punned.

Illinois may use the same sort of attack, although Zupke has employed a passing game more to the flanks or just over the scrimmage line. In most cases his ends have either criss-crossed behind the scrimmage line or they have gone straight down the field and then cut out toward the side line. The sort of passing game, however, will depend largely upon the styles or defense and the success of the plays upon how opportunity they are launched.

It should be a game in which anything may happen at any time. Thrills should be in the air, as neither coach will overlook anything. If weather conditions are favorable it will be one of the most colorful games of the year in the middle west. Both schools are noted for their routing, while the Orange and Blue colors of Illinois or the Maize and Blue of Michigan will be carried by every spectator and the bands of both schools will be on hand to add to a wonderful afternoon's activity and entertainment.

FROSH RUP UP ILLINI

Champaign, Ill., Oct. 21.—[Special.]—Handicapped by a muddy field, the Illini practiced for Michigan today, most of their work being on defense. The reappearance of Chuck Brown, last year's tackle, in the varsity line was a surprise, but Brown did well after his long rest and has a chance to start Saturday. Pug Daugherty was on the side lines, still resting after the bump yesterday, but the full back is certain to be back. Greathouse was in his place today.

Squires, hitherto a second string end, came into prominence when he took D. Ambrosio's place. Stub Muhl is still out of it and there seems to be little prospect he can play. Big Bubblers Mitterwall was today's practice victim, but the guard says he is all right.

Although the varsity registered a slight improvement in defensive practice, it was not reassuring, and the freshmen backs again tore big holes in the first team line.

BIKE STARS TO ARRIVE TONIGHT FOR 6 DAY RACE

Riders who will compete in the six day bicycle race starting at the Coliseum at 9 o'clock on Sunday night will arrive in Chicago tonight. Headquarters have been established at the New Southern hotel. The track will be ready tomorrow afternoon when amateurs and professionals will tune up over it.

Sight nations are represented in the field of twenty-eight starters who will be sent away on the long grind on Sunday night. Amateur and professional team and sprint races will be held Saturday night, starting at 8 o'clock.

JOHN HALL, 62, SOCCER LEADER, DIES IN CRASH

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 21.—[UP.]—John Hall, 62, promoter of soccer football, is dead. Veteran of several of Great Britain's wars and bearing the mark of a slain's sword on his right cheek, he was sent away on the long grind on yesterday on the St. Louis road. His automobile skidded and turned over. He suffered concussion of the brain. He was president of the Well Hall Miners' Water company.

Pompey Sent to Farm to Be Prepared for 1926 Derby

New York, Oct. 21.—[UP.]—W. R. Coo's crack two year old, Pompey, which generally was recognized as champion of the juvenile thoroughbred division this year, has been retired for the season. The colt was shipped today to the Hinyar stud farm in Kentucky, where he will be carefully prepared for entry in the Derby at Churchill Downs next spring.

PIN TOURNAMENT MAKES $4,430.

The Buffalo Bowling association made a profit of $4,430 on the 3 C. C. championship tournament. The receipts were $51,081.84 and disbursements $36,651.44.

Churchill Downs Fall Season Features South Louisville Handicap in Opening

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 21.—[Special.]—The 15 day fall racing season opens at the historic Churchill Downs track here tomorrow. It will bring the annual running of the Kentucky Jockey club stakes for two year olds which will be worth about $35,000 to the winner, on Saturday, Oct. 31. The winner of this race usually becomes the future favorite for the following year's Kentucky Derby. The South Louisville handicap at a mile, engaging a good field of a dozen, features tomorrow's opening program.

JACK IS ORDERED TO DEFEND TITLE EVERY 6 MONTHS

Boxing Commission Names Champ List.

SIGNS FOR BOUT

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—[Special.]—Jack Dempsey has signed articles of agreement calling for him to meet Martin Burke, light heavyweight of New Orleans, at a show to be staged by Frankie Edwards, fight promoter of New Orleans, at the Coliseum, New Orleans, Thanksgiving night. It will be a ten round fight.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 21.—[United News.]—Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight champion, must defend his title every six months, the National Boxing association convention ruled at its closing session yesterday.

The association formally recognized Dempsey as the champion, but said it expected to enforce the ruling if Dempsey did not defend his crown within the next six months. Just how it would do this the association failed to add.

Other national champions recognized by the association are: Phil Rosenberg, bantamweight; Lewis (Kid) Kaplan, featherweight; Jimmy Goodrich, lightweight; Mickey Walker, welterweight; Harry Greb, middleweight; Paul Berlenbach, light heavyweight.

The association passed a resolution urging federal control of boxing in the United States. Details of the plan are yet to be worked out, but the organization went on record as favoring passage of a law by the next congress placing boxing on the federal statute.

Another resolution provided for classification of all fighters under three headings—good, fair, and poor. Under this plan the secretaries of the various boxing commissions affiliated with the national organization will make reports to the national secretary on the showing of each fighter.

The New York boxing commission, which is almost the head of the business in the United States, does not belong to the national organization. There was some talk about admitting the New York commission, but it came to nothing.

Officers elected for the ensuing year were: Latrobe Corwell, president; Allen W. Baehr, Ohio, first vice president; Larry Edmonds, Kansas, second vice president; T. A. Murphy, Canada, third vice president; Lewis W. Isaac, Michigan, fourth vice president; Charles D. Arnett, Kentucky, secretary and treasurer. Detroit, Mich., was awarded the 1926 convention.

Teal Flirt with Becker's Decoys as He Reads Trib

BY BOB BECKER.

Upper Illinois River, Oct. 21.—[Special.]—Don't take any reading material into your duck blind no matter how keenly you want to look over a newspaper or a magazine. It doesn't pay as teal will invariably slip one over on you. This afternoon we went down to the lower blind on the pond here. It was early. We did not figure that the birds would start "working" until a bit later, so in one pocket of our coat we stuck the morning TRIBUNE as it looked like a chance to catch up on the day's news.

We built a blind in the tall marsh grass, immediately behind a pen containing 12 or 15 live birds and a bunch of wooden decoys. Fully twenty minutes were taken on the construction of this blind, which was quite a task when we finished it. The floor was constructed of corn stalks and dried wild sunflower stems were used for the exterior decoys. As early as a bird was stirring, we sat down, lit up the Jimmy pipe, and pulled out the paper. First we'd read a few lines, then we'd take a quick glance at the sky, and also peer through the blind at the water and horizon. All was quiet in duck land and our reading program continued.

After some 20 or 30 minutes, a quiet period which rendered us of time spent in the room of a public library, we stood up for a look-see. Wow! Such a surprise! Such a shock! Sitting in front of us as per usual, but vainly trying to get acquainted with a few wooden decoys, was a green-winged teal. He had quietly sneaked into the reading room without saying a word. Doc, stilt in the upper blind, watched this bit of comical and said that he was going to have a screen put around our blind, as judging by what has happened the birds are going to climb right in unless some step is taken to prevent them. And we are not reading The Trib in a duck blind.

INTO A DITCH!

IF your car should skid into a ditch, would your collision insurance reimburse you for the damage done?

Some policies declare that sliding into a ditch is not a collision; that it is simply your hard luck. The contract issued by the Inter Insurance Exchange of the Chicago Motor Club says that this is a collision, and the claims department handles it as such.

One of the privileges to which members of the Chicago Motor Club are entitled is that of placing their automobile insurance with the exchange.

Cash savings are returned to subscribers without any strings attached. Last year this amounted to $305,751.50.

Accessories and tires are covered without extra charge.

Members make membership pay them a profit through this one department alone. Learn more about this and other money saving services. Clip the coupon and we shall be glad to send you information concerning our insurance, legal, touring, home, district, and mechanical first aid departments.

Send the coupon today and learn why 45,000 motorists in northern Illinois and Indiana consider membership not an expense, but a profit making investment.

BEACH SPIN AS TIDE TURNS IS FLORIDA THRILL

Motorist Is Between Wall and Deep Sea.

BY J. L. JENKINS.
Daytona, Fla., Oct. 21.—[Special.]—A real semi-tropical Florida thrill is being experienced by the thousands of motorists who are flocking to the beach for the first time. The thrill is the first great southern beach spin over the ocean. The thrill is the first time the motorist has been able to swing up to a horizon of whitecaps. It will prove a new and entirely novel experience for the thousands of motorists who are flocking to the beach for the first time.

Imagination Becomes Active.
The beach road drops down through the sand dunes and the motorist is able to see the ocean for the first time. The thrill is the first time the motorist has been able to swing up to a horizon of whitecaps. It will prove a new and entirely novel experience for the thousands of motorists who are flocking to the beach for the first time.

Some Fell by Wayside.
It cannot spoil the charm of interest in St. Augustine, the fourteenth century Spanish town where every street holds structures that date back to the first days of the colony. The thrill is the first time the motorist has been able to swing up to a horizon of whitecaps. It will prove a new and entirely novel experience for the thousands of motorists who are flocking to the beach for the first time.

From St. Augustine south, through Hastings to Bunnell, the highway is uniformly good. The thrill is the first time the motorist has been able to swing up to a horizon of whitecaps. It will prove a new and entirely novel experience for the thousands of motorists who are flocking to the beach for the first time.

AMES.
Ames, Ia., Oct. 21.—[Special.]—Facing forward and fighting Washington University football team in their second conference game next Saturday. The Cyclones are drilling intensely. With the regulars, Kingery, tackle, and Coe, will make a difference because of injuries received in the Kansas game. Coach William may start two reserves in Saturday's battle. With the Piker weighing as much as the Cyclone, the Cyclone will have a fair chance of winning the conference championship this year.

Another and better road for the Miami bound traveler goes southwest through Palatka from Hastings and down through the beauties of Lake County to Eustis and Orlando.

It is fitting that members of the Muskies' Golf club are still playing.

IOWA.
Iowa City, Ia., Oct. 21.—[Special.]—With Iowa's Flying Dutchman ready to set sail for Ohio and another meeting with his high school rival, Elmer Marek, Coach Burton A. Ingwersen tonight gave a long workout to Katsch's understudies, Hogan and Smith. Fear that his star has become a marked man has led to the drilling of the reserve quarters. Hogan especially fitted into the kicking and passing game, while Smith proved more effective as a runner. Several new plays were worked out and the evening finished with a long drill on defense. Special attention will be given to Marek and Karow. The Hawks fear the running of the former and the passing arm of Karow.

In the WAKE of the NEWS

INTERSECTIONAL FOOTBALL.
SINCE football was first played at the University of Chicago in 1892, the Maroons have participated in twenty-eight intersectional contests, of which they won fifteen, lost ten and tied three.

That record is not quite as impressive as it sounds, however, for the Midway squads were bumped eight times by eastern eleven, while they triumphed over the efforts east five times, and had three ties—two with Cornell and one with Pennsylvania.

It was Penn's three victories over the Stags which cast the eastern balance against them. In the opinion of most critics, they are headed for their fourth defeat Saturday. That opinion, apparently, is shared by local Quaker alumni, who are offering 2 to 1 against the Maroons.

The Wake saw the great 5 to 5 tie of 1909, the year Chicago won the western title in a post-season playoff with Wisconsin at Madison. It was a contest in which a superior team was held to a tie by a game fighting bunch, of whom Ilene, the great guard, was the hero. We never will forget the memory of that giant towhead, hobbling around on an injured ankle and making tackles all over the field.

We do not think any one game or any one year can settle the question of sectional supremacy. There will be years when the best western eleven can beat the best eastern eleven. The next year it may be reversed. Therefore the contests always are interesting. Assuredly, however, the day of undisputed eastern sway has vanished, never to return.

Chicago's intersectional record by years follows:
1894—Won and lost, Leland Stanford (post-season).
1896—Lost to Pennsylvania.
1898—Lost to Cornell and Brown; tied Pennsylvania.
1900—Lost to Brown and Pennsylvania.
1901—Lost to Pennsylvania.
1902—Beat Haskell Indians; lost to Army.
1903—Beat Texas.
1907—Lost to Carlisle Indians.
1908—Beat Nebraska; tied Cornell.
1909—Tied Cornell.
1910—Lost to Cornell.
1911—Beat Cornell.
1915—Beat Haskell Indians.
1917—Beat Princeton and Colorado.
1922—Beat Georgia and lost to Princeton.
1923—Beat Colorado Aziele.
1924—Beat Brown and lost to Missouri.
1925—Beat Kentucky.

It is fitting that members of the Muskies' Golf club are still playing.

N. U. RESERVES MAY START IN TULANE BATTLE

Coach Glenn Thistlethwaite is doing everything possible to demonstrate that Northwestern is not a one man team and that the Wildcat can play a good brand of ball without Moon Baker. Last night he had two of his varsity squads scrimmage with the freshmen eleven. This is the first time this year that he has been running two games at one time and is taken as an indication that he may use some of Stage's tactics of starting reserves and then calling out the first team to do the real damage.

With the exception of Capt. Lowry, center; Lewis, full back, and Wally Seidel, end, who are the best at their positions, Thistlethwaite now has two outfits that can play interchangeably without any great loss of strength. Christian has been used quite a bit of late at quarter, and either Edmunds or Gustafson can play Baker's half. White has the edge on the other position, but there are several good substitutes for haggles to follow.

Maury Kent's freshmen team used trick plays against the varsity teams with good results. He also has his men using a southern dialect. Fisher, big colored end on the yearling squad, supplies dialect, and some of the others are trying some army French to get the varsity accustomed to Tulane's trick of calling signals in that language. Purple scouts have secured some good dope on the New Orleans team, and the freshmen showed the varsity up several times.

MARQUETTE.
Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 21.—[Special.]—A sudden increase in the size of the casual list of the Marquette university gridiron squad has given added worries to Coach Frank J. Murphy, and the remnants of the Golden Avalanche are being worked overtime in preparation for the Lombard game Saturday and Creighton and Kansas Aggies to follow. John Fahay, guard, is out for the week with a dislocated rib, while John Padden, end, tore ligaments in his shoulder yesterday. In addition Kampine, McCormick, Rooney, and Dunn have been in the hospital list for some time. Marquette is working on a new formation in drill this week. The play of Johnnie Helmach, half back, has been the most brilliant spot in the practice.

NOTRE DAME.
Notre Dame, Ind., Oct. 21.—[Special.]—Good spirits prevailed in the Notre Dame camp on the eve of the departure for Minnesota as Coach Knott put his team through the last stiff scrimmage. With only two days of real workout between the Army disaster and the clash with the powerful Gopher eleven, there seems little upon which to base a rise in spirits, especially when the freshmen, using Minnesota plays, managed to chalk up consistent gains against the varsity. But Notre Dame is confident that the players' return to good nature indicates a development of psychology needed much more than a development of football, and the hundreds of Notre Dame students who are getting ready for the trip are beginning to reflect the same change.

KNOX.
Galesburg, Ill., Oct. 21.—[Special.]—Though Knox will be without the services of Dicus, speedy little half back, who broke bones of his hand last night in a scrimmage, the team will be at top form for the Beloit homecoming Saturday. Eddie Barron, Downers Grove, takes the place of Dicus in the back field. Wylie will play full back, and Bill Senn, captain and right half back, is the other half. Senn in three years has not failed to score for Knox and often has pulled games out of the fire for old Siwash. Injuries have not yet forced his retirement from football.

Bulbs of Flowers Should Be Stored After First Frost

BY FRANK RIDGWAY.
S. W. Hall's advice, sent out yesterday by the agricultural college at Urbana, Ill., will answer many questions which have been coming to this department within the last month concerning the time to dig the store bulbs or clumps of such garden flowers as cannas, dahlias, tuberose, and gladioli.

Gladioli's flowering period ended several weeks ago, but they are left in the ground until after frost, which gives them time to complete their growth. From the time they quit blooming in August until the tops are killed by frost the gladioli bulbs are going through a process of being recharged—similar to the recharging of an automobile battery. Here in the bulb's laboratory blossoms are being made and are locked up to be turned out next season.

Cannas, dahlias, and tuberose bloom late and are left out until after the first frost. Hall says to dig up the whole clump of these three flowers and retain all the dirt that clings to roots and tubes and store where it is cool and dry, but never near a furnace or in a place where water will reach them. Wherever potatoes will keep over winter these tubes may be safely stored. Put them away soon after they are dug.

Shake all the soil off gladioli bulbs and are left out until after the first frost. GAYER SIGNED AS PRO GOLFER AT TWIN ORCHARD

The new Twin Orchard club has signed as professional Eddie Gayer of Los Angeles, who will make the second Golden State player to locate in Chicago within the last year. Al Espinosa, now at the Illinois club, was the first pro to give up life on the Pacific coast. Gayer will come here early next spring.

The Twin Orchard club is at Bryn Mawr avenue and Wolf road, and has 104 acres of fine land, which was formerly the original homestead and farm of Henry Dunsmuir. The course will be ready for play next summer.

The women's auxiliary at the Riverside Golf club has elected Mrs. E. T. Downs to succeed Mrs. W. H. Gorenlock as chairman of the golf committee. Mrs. E. H. Hoefler accepted the appointment as chairman of the social committee.

At the annual golf dinner the principal prizes won during the season were presented. Miss Sarah Miles, who won the championship, had her name engraved on the trophy, which must be won three times, and also received a medal.

LOMBARD.
Galesburg, Ill., Oct. 21.—[Special.]—Lombard's football team, which goes to Marquette Saturday, confidently expects to register a victory. Harry Bell held Henley and Sharp, back field stars, out of the St. Viator game, and these two will figure largely in the plays designed for Marquette. The Olive team this year averages 174 pounds. Coulter, Sandberg, Fremont, and Henley will compose the starting back field.

NOTRE DAME.
Notre Dame, Ind., Oct. 21.—[Special.]—Good spirits prevailed in the Notre Dame camp on the eve of the departure for Minnesota as Coach Knott put his team through the last stiff scrimmage. With only two days of real workout between the Army disaster and the clash with the powerful Gopher eleven, there seems little upon which to base a rise in spirits, especially when the freshmen, using Minnesota plays, managed to chalk up consistent gains against the varsity. But Notre Dame is confident that the players' return to good nature indicates a development of psychology needed much more than a development of football, and the hundreds of Notre Dame students who are getting ready for the trip are beginning to reflect the same change.

KNOX.
Galesburg, Ill., Oct. 21.—[Special.]—Though Knox will be without the services of Dicus, speedy little half back, who broke bones of his hand last night in a scrimmage, the team will be at top form for the Beloit homecoming Saturday. Eddie Barron, Downers Grove, takes the place of Dicus in the back field. Wylie will play full back, and Bill Senn, captain and right half back, is the other half. Senn in three years has not failed to score for Knox and often has pulled games out of the fire for old Siwash. Injuries have not yet forced his retirement from football.

IDE JUDD.
Iowa City, Ia., Oct. 21.—[Special.]—With Iowa's Flying Dutchman ready to set sail for Ohio and another meeting with his high school rival, Elmer Marek, Coach Burton A. Ingwersen tonight gave a long workout to Katsch's understudies, Hogan and Smith. Fear that his star has become a marked man has led to the drilling of the reserve quarters. Hogan especially fitted into the kicking and passing game, while Smith proved more effective as a runner. Several new plays were worked out and the evening finished with a long drill on defense. Special attention will be given to Marek and Karow. The Hawks fear the running of the former and the passing arm of Karow.

BELOIT.
Beloit, Wis., Oct. 21.—[Special.]—Beloit college put in its last night of hard practice here for the Knox homecoming game Saturday, with the variety flash-

N. D. HARRIERS TO OPEN SEASON WITH INDIANA

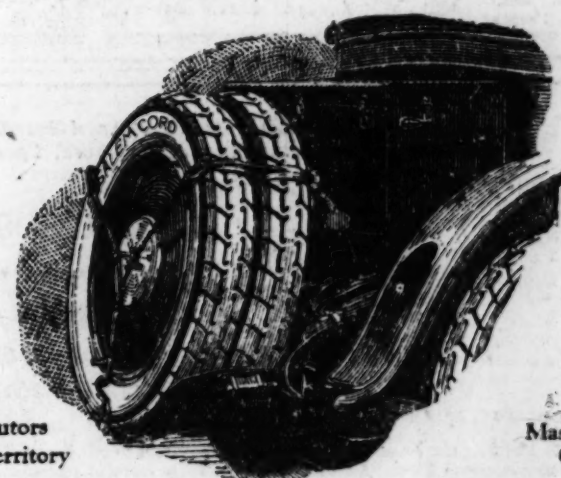

Notre Dame, Ind., Oct. 21.—[Special.]—Notre Dame's harriers are out in force for a winning season. The first meet will be with Indiana at Bloomington Saturday. Ten candidates are fighting for positions on the five man squad, and five of these men are veterans.

Capt. Joe Nutty, Masterson, Delmage, Young, and Maloney are the veteran members of the team, but they are being hard pressed by Phelan, the Collins brothers, Browne, and Ryan, members of last year's freshman team. Coach John Wendland has given the men a month of stiff training. Notre Dame's schedule:

Oct. 24, Indiana at Bloomington; Oct. 31, Northwestern at Soldier field, Chicago; Nov. 7, Michigan State at Lansing; Nov. 14, Indiana State meet; Nov. 21, Western Conference meet at Ann Arbor, Mich.

Stand Crash Takes W. & J. Bethany Game to Wheeling.
Washington, Pa., Oct. 21.—[Special.]—The football game between Washington and Jefferson and Bethany scheduled for College field here Oct. 31 will be played at Wheeling, W. Va. The transfer of the game was necessary by the closing of the local athletic park for the season by the college authorities following the stand crash of last Saturday.

$500,000,000 OIL MERGER STARTED BY TEXAS CO.

BY O. A. MATHER.

Another big oil merger involving two companies with combined assets of nearly $500,000,000 is in prospect. The Texas company, one of the largest of the independent oil concerns, is negotiating the purchase of the Phillips Petroleum company. The basis for the deal is an exchange of Texas stock for the deal of Phillips Petroleum and terms now are being discussed.

The Texas company has total assets around $380,000,000. It has 6,578,000 shares of capital stock of $25 par value outstanding. Net tangible assets were $19,474,484 at the end of 1934. The market price yesterday was $4.02 a share. The dividend rate is $2 annually.

The Phillips Petroleum company has total assets around $115,000,000. It has 1,876,686 shares of common stock outstanding. Net tangible assets were $33,734,484 at the end of 1934. The market price yesterday was $4.02 a share. The dividend rate is $2 annually.

Improvement in Steel Industry.
The steel industry produced another cheerful budget of new orders. The first of the larger concerns to make known their third quarter earnings, reported net income of $4,646,661, equal to $1.36 a share on the common stock, compared with a deficit of $4,320 in the third quarter of 1934. Net income for nine months was $2,499,337, or $2.95 a share.

The common stock, compared with $6.05 a share, last year. Unfilled orders at Sept. 30 were 12,842 tons, compared with 77,998 a year ago.

The Youngstown Sheet and Tube company reported third quarter net profit at $2,229,425, equal to $1.04 a share on the common stock, compared with $472,839, or 22c a share, in the third quarter of last year. Net profit for nine months was $10,419,837, or $3.79 a share on the common stock, compared with $1,000,000, or $2.41 a share, last year. The Otis Steel company reported nine months net profit at $1,595,034, equal to $1.05 a share on the common stock, compared with a deficit of $829,231 for the same period in 1934.

Buying Holes Up.
"Buying of rolled steel products is still well up to the rate of the first half of October, which represented some gain over the September average," the Iron Age says in its monthly review. "The demand is most noticeable in the automobile, railroad, and building steel and points to sustained activity in those lines in the winter months. The rate of steel production has not changed and the continuance of operations around 100 per cent of capacity is indicated for some weeks to come."

Orders for finished steel are exceeding output of the mills in spite of a high rate of production, the Iron Trade says.
"Deliveries on certain products have become deferred from six to eight weeks.
Railroad buying in heavy volume is indicated. Expectation that railroad enterprises will place from 500,000 to 600,000 tons of rails for 1936 delivery is borne out by recent awards and current inquiries. The tonnage placed by these orders already totals 410,000 tons."

Extra Dividends Declared.
The Kellogg Switchboard and Supply company declared 1 1/2 per cent extra, or 12 1/2 cents; the Public Service Investment company declared an extra of 1 per cent on common stock.

Stockholders of the Columbia syndicate approved a change in capital stock from no par value to $1 par and authorized an increase from 2,000,000 to 3,000,000 shares. One-half of the new stock will be offered to stockholders at $1 a share in the proportion of one share for four held. Rights expire Nov. 9.

The new stock issue of the Howe Sound company will be 20,000 shares, which will be offered to shareholders at $12 a share on the basis of one share for every four held on Nov. 14. Subscriptions are payable on or before Dec. 15.

The Foundation company will offer stockholders of record Nov. 11 the right to subscribe to one-ninth of a share of new stock for each old share held at $125 a share. The rights expire Dec. 2.

WHEAT DECLINES ON LIQUIDATION BY LOCAL LONGS

BY CHARLES MICHAELS.

Local long wheat who had December wheat bought to start to liquidate their holdings and found support lacking, causing a sharp reaction and the finish was at a net loss of 1 1/2c, while May was 1/4c lower. The December-May difference narrowed to 2 1/2c at the last. May corn sold down to 78c, a new low on the crop and the market showed a heavy undertone from the start. The close being 1/4c lower. Oats were 1/2c lower and rye off 1/4c.

Early strength in wheat was due to an upturn of 1/2c in Liverpool, but because with northwestern and Winnipeg connections were persistent sellers, and later the pressure from local longs increased considerably, and at the low point prices were off 1/2c, the finish being about the bottom. There was aggressive buying of May credited to short covering for foreigners.

Exporters buy at Winnipeg. Heavy buying of wheat futures at Winnipeg credited to exporters to a large extent offset the persistent selling for country account and hedging pressure, and the loss there was 1/2c for the day. Kansas City December declined 1 1/2c and premiums there were 12c lower. A weakening in the cash situation, and No. 2 hard offered here at 8c over December, against sales at 10c over earlier in the week, had some effect on sentiment.

A statement by Secretary of Agriculture Jardine that the bearish influences for this season seemed to have been discounted led to buying early, but when the full message was received it was construed as bearish. Broomhall has radically revised his estimate on world's supply and demand, and was 10c lower for the 1925-26 season, or 62,000,000 bu. more than his previous estimate, while exporting countries have 680,000,000 bu. Russia has materially reduced its estimate as to the amount of wheat available for export, due largely to transportation difficulties and after harvest damage. Export demand was more active, with sales of 700,000 bu. in all positions.

Corn Market Heavy. Corn and oats have been showing a heavy undertone for several days, and the markets declined in sympathy with wheat, with a few stop orders uncovered in corn on the way down. Spot basis was 1/4c lower on corn, with country offerings to arrive fairly liberal. Five cars of new sample grade were received from Illinois, testing 24 to 26.4 per cent moisture, and sold at 40c. The seaboard reported 700,000 bu. oats sold for export in the last two days, with the basis 1/2c higher. Bulk of the trade in oat futures was in selling

BORAH TO ASK CURB ON POWER TO BAR ALIENS

Countess Karolyi Case Stirs Row

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
Washington, D. C., Oct. 22.—The action of Secretary of State Kellogg today in recommending that Countess Karolyi of Hungary be deported from the United States as a dangerous communist and revolutionist stirred up a ruckus that is doing its utmost to disturb the peace and quiet of the Coolidge administration.

Ralph Beaver Straassburger, editor of the Norristown, Pa., newspaper, whose wife invited the countess to pay her a visit, was unable to dissuade Mr. Kellogg from his decision although he challenged the American foreign minister to a duel. That the Karolyis are either communists or revolutionists.

Borah to Ask Amendment
Mr. Straassburger appealed from Secretary's decision to President Kellogg to no avail and then to the Senate committee on foreign relations. Mr. Borah said that as soon as Congress convenes, in December, he will move the repeal of that provision of the immigration law which gives the state department unlimited authority to refuse admission to any foreigner on the mere allegation that he is a communist.

Senator Borah also intimates that there will be an inquiry into the administration of this section of the law which has produced a number of inconsistencies seeming to require explanation, in his opinion.

Last year Countess Karolyi was allowed to enter United States, the administration betraying no alarm at the alleged dangerous communist tendencies. After she had been here some time she became ill, and Count Kellogg wanted to come over to visit her. It transpired that it was the countess, who was in the preservation of our form of government.

Safe to Let Count In on Pro
The count, however, volunteered no public utterances while in this country, and upon that assurance Secretary of State Hughes decided to allow him to visit his sick wife, the immigration law notwithstanding.

Eventually the countess and the Karolyis departed last by way of Canada, where they burst into print, spilling all the long thoughts that had been bottled in his bosom by his silence. Mr. Hughes. These thoughts seem to be inflammatory, but called world-wide attention to the tiling of free speech in the land and made a good many administration officials pretty angry.

The Saklatvala Precedent
A couple of months ago the department visaged the passport of Saklatvala, the British parliamentarian, who was coming to the of the Interparliamentary conference in Washington, but later revoked on the ground that he is a communist. This was followed by a pronouncement by Secretary Davis that under law communists must be barred, or if found here. Yet, right before the secretary's nose, is a nest of communists representing the soviet government in Washington was disclosed. It also transpired that a dozen Russian communists were allowed to enter on business professional errands.
